TRIBUTES PAID TO SPORTS STALWART

TRIBUTES have been made to a Cannock sporting stalwart who has died aged just 44.

Robert Smith – known to his friends as Biffo – played in Cannock's cricket and hockey teams for more than 20 years.

He had been forced to give up the sports he loved in recent years because of a heart condition, but was still a regular face around Cannock and attended a hockey game just three weeks ago.

by Tim Spiers

Mr Smith, who moved from his native Cannock to live in Stafford when he married his wife Dawn around seven years ago, was known as a prolific hockey goalscorer.

He played centre forward for the club's second team and in cricket was a batsman who also bowled from time to time.

Team mate Dave Mayer said Mr Smith was part of a group of friends who had known each other at the club since they were 16.

He described his friend as larger than life and a real club stalwart.

"Rob was an ebullient character who was friendly, outgoing and at times mischievous," Mr Mayer said.

Friends

"He had been a gifted sportsman and had represented the club for many years – he was a real club stalwart.

"He would always try his hardest and we'd all been good friends with him at some stage over the years."

A club career highlight came in the 1990s when he played a game for Cannock in the national hockey league.

Mr Mayer said Mr Smith, who worked in the accounts department at Beatties in Wolverhampton for many years, often followed the hockey first team around the country and even overseas.

"He was a great supporter of the first team and a really good guy to have around," Mr Mayer added.

"That national game would have been a highlight for him – he was absolutely thrilled and very proud of that."

"He loved the sporting environment.

"That commitment to supporting us and the friendships he'd had since he was 16 are what you remember the most."

Mr Smith's funeral will take place tomorrow (Friday) at St Saviours Church, Hatherton, at 2pm followed by a burial in the grounds.

A statement on Cannock Hockey Club's website said that former team mates were all invited to talk of happy times at Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club afterwards.

Another statement said: "Biffo was a talented player who was passionate about the club, hockey and his friends.

"He is a loss to us all.

"Our thoughts are with his family and we request that you respect their privacy at this tragic time."

Mr Smith is the second club stalwart to pass away in recent weeks following the death of Bert Sambrooke at the age of 97.

He was a founder member of the club and was still umpiring games into his 60s.

Residents stay home for a fun day by sea

RESIDENTS in land-locked Rugeley can enjoy a day at the seaside – without leaving their own town.

Donkey rides, sandpits placed in an Olympic ring formation and paddling pools will all feature in the Rugeley By The Sea event on Saturday, July 28, from 10am to 4pm.

A Punch & Judy show and street entertainers are also planned.

A large market will be held from Brook Square into Upper Brook Street in the town centre, while visitors can also see birds of prey and a museum bus showing the history of shopping.

Invited

Residents could also get a second chance to see the Olympic Torch. Seven people from the town acted as Torchbearers during the Olympic flame relay, and all were invited back to an event in the town on July 7.

Only one, Gerald Willis-croft was able to make it. He has been sent a letter of thanks by the town council. He and all other Torchbearers have been asked instead to show off the Torch at the Rugeley By The Sea event.

Anyone wishing to hold a market stall is asked to call Angi Cooney on 01889 583377.

Strawberries and tea time

A STRAWBERRY tea is being held in Rugeley this weekend to raise money for breast cancer care.

Sarah Cornwall, of the Holistic Hut, in Albion Street, has organised the event from 10am to 5pm on Saturday.

Visitors are welcome along to have strawberries, a drink and cake and try their hand at the tombola.

A professional storyteller and face painter have been booked to appear, while treatments will be on offer for a donation with all proceeds going towards breast cancer care.

Teachers Paul Davis and Ruth Adamson with youngsters from Churchfields Primary School ahead of their seaside trip to Rhyl

Buckets of fun was had by pupils

YOUNGSTERS from Rugeley enjoyed a day of sea, sand and sunshine as they took a trip to the beach.

Churchfields Primary School organised a trip to Rhyl, North Wales, to tie in with a school seaside topic.

Pupils in Years 1 and 2 have been learning all about traditional British seasides, analysing what they used to be like in the past and putting on a Punch and Judy puppet show.

All 48 children in the two year groups saw the beach first hand when they departed for the day trip on Tuesday.

Shells

Year 2 teacher Ruth Adamson said a donation of £50 from Angi Cooney at Rugeley lettings firm C Residential had gone a long way to helping fund the trip.

The youngsters had fun on the beach and also paid a visit to Rhyl SeaQuarium.

Miss Adamson said: "The children have really enjoyed their seaside topic and it's a lovely beach at Rhyl with great facilities."

"The weather held off and everyone had a really great day. They played games on the beach, made sandcastles and looked at all the different shells.

"They also enjoyed it at the Sealife centre where they could see all the different creatures," she added.

Council's housing scheme is put back

THE first council house building programme in Cannock for a quarter of a century has been hit by a delay of 15 months.

Cannock Chase Council needs to rehouse residents from 170 flats before work can start on 70 new homes.

But, at the moment, just 47 are vacant, pushing the start date back from early next year to spring 2014.

Under the £6m plans, the new homes will replace outdated flats on the Moss Road estate in Chadsmoor.

Councillor Frank Allen, cabinet member for housing, admitted the provisional deadline to rehouse residents had been optimistic.

Exciting

He said: "Realistically we are looking at early 2014 to start work, with the flats all acquired towards the autumn next year."

Council leader George Adamson added: "It is unfortunate there has been a slight delay but it's still very exciting. These are the first council homes we are building here since 1987."

A report to be presented to today's council's cabinet states: "It is anticipated that at the current re-housing rate vacant possession of all the council flats will be achieved in spring 2014."

Delays after M6 collision

THE M6 was brought to a standstill in Staffordshire following a crash between three cars and a van.

A woman was cut free following the smash on the northbound carriageway between Junctions 14 and 15 at 2.30pm on Tuesday.

It caused delays as far back as junction 11 for Cannock. There were also problems on Boney Hay Road in Burntwood because of an accident involving three cars at about 8.15pm.

In Norton Canes, Brownhills Road was shut in both directions near the library because of an accident.

Students jet out on mercy mission

Some of those involved in the Link 4 Life project

YOUNGSTERS from secondary schools in Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay have flown to South Africa to help out charities.

Pupils have spent months fundraising to pay for the aid mission, including holding a sponsored stay awake, packing bags at local stores, music nights, a community fair, quizzes and a curry night.

The 18-strong school party set off from Great Wyrley last Thursday and will return home on July 27. It includes nine students from Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School and Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School, led by nine adults.

The aid mission is part of the Link 4 Life Project, which was launched in 2010 by local churches in Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley to bring together schools, churches and the wider community to support the work of three Christian charities in southern Africa.

A second team, comprising of adults from churches and the communities in Rugeley and Great Wyrley will fly out from August 2 to 17.

Head makes pledge on better school ranking

A HEDNESFORD school which was left without a headteacher for nine months after suspending its previous principal has now been placed in 'special measures' by Ofsted inspectors.

St Peter's CoE Primary, in Reservoir Road, has been accused of failing to give pupils an acceptable level of education in an Ofsted report.

Praise for the pupils by church inspectors

CHURCH inspectors have praised the 'kind, caring and well-behaved' children and the Christian ethos at St Peter's CofE Primary.

The school was praised for its 'friendly and inclusive ethos' and its positive impact on the development of children in the Lichfield Diocese inspection report.

It was described as a happy school working closely with the neighbouring church community.

Inspectors welcomed the 'supportive and caring ethos of the whole school community' and described the children as 'delightful, respectful and courteous.'

The report states: "Pupils are proud of their school and talk enthusiastically about the praise and reward systems available through the school. Pupils' confidence is boosted by the recognition and celebration of their achievements, especially at the regular celebration assembly."

Of parents, the report said: "Parents and carers find the school welcoming. They report that other faiths are respected. They feel that the school staff are very approachable."

New headmistress Samantha Price has, with the support of inspectors, vowed to improve the school's ranking.

She has already made major improvements at the school, which has more than 440 pupils.

Headmaster Trevor Hancock was suspended in July, eventually leaving due to ill health. Acting heads ran St Peter's before Miss Price took up the position permanently in April – one month before the inspection.

Ofsted criticised school leadership, highlighting poor progress in writing and maths. Inspectors said senior staff have not been effective in improving the quality of the studies. They also highlighted the high level of staff absence.

Positive

But they acknowledged the positive impact Miss Price had had, with strategies for improvement already being put into place.

They wrote: "The newly appointed headteacher has rapidly gained the respect of pupils, parents, carers and staff and made an encouraging start to improving the school's performance and the morale of staff."

Miss Price was deputy head at St John's Primary School in Essington which had an 'outstanding' status.

She said: "Last year over a fifth of schools put into special measures came out as not merely satisfactory but as good, and this is something the governors and I are determined to achieve."

Old class help for challenge

Youngsters from St James Primary with Chris Gilbert, mother of former pupil Lizzie

OLD school ties were revived when a charity climber asked her former primary teachers for support.

Elizabeth Gilbert plans to scale Mount Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest mountain, with three university friends next month.

The group has already raised £10,000 between them – and can now add a further £102 to the kitty, thanks to money generated through a non-uniform day at St James Primary in Rugeley.

Elizabeth emailed teachers for help in raising money. They gave a power-point presentation at assembly about the project and Meningitis UK, the charity for which she is raising money.

Thumbs down on cattery proposal

A CHASE councillor has been refused plans to run a cattery from his home in Rugeley.

Councillor Danny Davies wanted to run the business from his home in Kingsley Wood Road, but the proposals was rejected after objections from neighbours.

Residents had raised several worried including fears over traffic and noise from the cats. They also feared it would set a precedent for other similar businesses in the quiet residential area which sits on the edge of Cannock Chase.

Impact

Planning chiefs said they were turning down the application because it could impact on an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Brindley Heath Parish Council had also complained it would offer no benefit to residents.

Councillor Davies did not want to comment on the decision. However, local residents said they were happy with the outcome.

Albert Hargreaves, aged 74 and retired, said: "I just think it is the wrong area to have a commercial enterprise and it would bring in extra traffic and people to a site of special scientific interest."

Music hall is topic of talk

Housing complex rejected

A NEW housing complex for people with disabilities has been turned down by council planners.

Residents living near the proposed scheme, in Woodside Place, Cannock, said they were so happy with the outcome that they were planning to host a celebratory street party.

Bilston-based Heatnun Housing Association wanted to build an accommodation block on vacant land off Woodside Place, covering an area of almost 12,000 sq ft.

Although the supported living development plans were recommended for approval by officers, councillors on the planning control committee chose to turn them down.

The building would have consisted of six one-bedroom flats, a bungalow and a two-bedroom "resource flat".

The scheme had prompted a petition from nearby residents who were worried about noise, an increase in traffic and a loss of privacy.

Nicola Shaughnessy, a 37-year-old mother of six, said: "It is fantastic news and I am very relieved."

Moving the goalposts

METAL thieves stole a goalpost from Heath Hayes football ground – hours before a pre-season friendly against neighbours Hednesford. The theft of the post was discovered on Saturday.

The game between was in doubt until a groundsman obtained a spare set.

The game was able to go ahead with the replacement.

Reg Maiden, who is the on Heath Hayes' committee, said the theft happened at the Heath Hayes Coppice Colliery Ground, off Newlands Lane.

"They went to put them up before the match and they had gone," he said.

The groundsman, who did not want to named, said: "I found another pole but it was too long and not compatible, so I sawed off the end and nobody would be none the wiser now."

The game ended with a 5-1 win for Hednesford Town.

Bid for walkway

A COVERED walkway is planned to link Rugeley's theatre and town council base. Plans have been unveiled for the walkway from the Rose Theatre, Taylors Lane, to the Community Hall.

Apprentice honoured with top achiever award

Apprentice of the year finalist Luke Preece of Brindley Volvo Wolverhampton with Prince Michael of Kent

AN APPRENTICE at a Codsall motor dealership has been recognised as on of the country's top young technicians.

Luke Preece works for Brindley Volvo and was a finalist in the Institute of the Motor Industry's outstanding achievers' awards. He also won Volvo Car UK's first year service technician apprentice of the year

The IMI, the leading awarding body for the retail motor industry, holds its annual awards to recognise the top achievers of the year. Presented by HRH Prince Michael of Kent, patron of the IMI Group, at a special ceremony, the awards recognise both technical and non-technical employees as well as the centres who train them.

Luke, aged 17, joined Brindley Volvo at Wolverhampton Road as an apprentice in August 2010 after completing his GCSEs at Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School.

He is the dealership's first ever apprentice and is undertaking the three-year Volvo advanced apprenticeship programme which will eventually see him graduate as a qualified vehicle technician. "Winning the Volvo apprenticeship award was amazing but to achieve a finalist place in a national competition open to apprentices from every franchise is phenomenal," said Luke.

"It was unexpected but I was incredibly happy and it has made me much more focused on my career and the kind of things I can achieve."

Brindley Volvo's aftersales manager Stuart Hopcraft said: "This reflects Luke's dedication and ability, the high quality training provided."

Pigeon takes flight – and ends up 3,000 miles away

A PIGEON owner has spoken of his shock after learning that his confused racing bird had turned up more than 3,000 miles away.

Bernard Chambers, aged 75, said he just "couldn't believe it" after his racing bird Percy ended up in Canada rather than his home town of Cannock.

Bernard Chambers

Percy the pigeon

Plucky Percy, also known as number 12, had been entered into a race in Fougeres in Brittany, France, last month.

But rather than flying to his Staffordshire home, the bird turned up more than 3,000 miles away in Quebec.

Mr Chambers has now been contacted by the Royal Pigeon Racing Association to say Percy had been found.

He had been identified by a number on a leg ring.

Pigeon racer of 60 years, Mr Chambers said: "It came as a big surprise, we couldn't believe it.

Hitched

"We can only think that he hitched a ride on a boat or boats, he was obviously looked after by someone, we haven't got any other logical explanation.

"I can't see him flying 3,000 miles across the water. They do get lost quite regularly," Mr Chambers added.

"There can be mishaps - they've got lots of things to face like peregrine falcons, bad weather and they can get blown off course.

"You do lose a few over the season. But this pigeon was one of our most consistent racers over land, and he'd flown back from France at the start of June fine."

Percy has found a new home after being taken in by French Canadian pigeon enthusiast Michel Gosselin, who has 50 years experience of looking after them.

Mr Chambers has been shown pictures of Percy's new pad.

History group's social gathering

A HISTORY group is cashing in on the success of a coffee morning held in June by staging two more events.

Bridgtown and District Local History Society is holding the gatherings on July 26 from 10am to noon at and on August 30 from 2 to 4 pm, both at the Bethel Chapel in Union Street.

Robert Pugh, David Pugh, Irene Pugh holding Freya Jones and Michelle Jones

Oh baby! A family welcome for Freya

A CANNOCK family is playing the generation game following its latest arrival.

Freya Jones was welcomed into the world at Walsall Manor Hospital on July 1, weighing 7lb 1oz.

She is the fifth generation for her proud family.

Great-great grandmother Irene Pugh, aged 91, and originally of Old Hednesford Road, was joined by her son and Freya's great-grandfather 72 year-old Robert to celebrate the achievement.

Addition

Robert's son David, 49, who works as a joiner, and his daughter and new mum Michelle Jones, aged 28, completed the generations as they gave a special welcome to the latest addition to the family.

They all met at Marlyn House, Cannock Road where Irene lives. Robert, a retired joiner of Chalcot Drive, Hednesford, said they were delighted to have five generations of the family.

"It makes you feel a bit older but Freya is lovely. We will probably have a big celebration.

"I am very proud as we are a close knit family," he added.

Survey reveals bacteria fears

A SURVEY for an anti-bacterial products business, which has its European headquarters in Cannock, found that more than half of air travellers are worried about bacteria on aeroplanes.

Microban Europe has its headquarters in Hayes Way, Heath Hayes and has operations in Germany, Italy and France.

The research found 53 per cent were concerned or very concerned about the presence of bacteria on seat covers, cushions and headrests.

Buildings to get sprinkler checks

ALL future county council buildings in Staffordshire will be assessed to determine whether sprinklers should be fitted.

Councillor Mark Winnington said: "The adoption of this formal policy sets out that every new county council buildings or major refurbishment project, will be individually fire risk assessed ."

IF YOU have not yet seen Tom Symonds's account of being mugged at knifepoint, it's at www.bbc.co.uk/news/magazine-18739151

Symonds is the BBC Home Affairs correspondent. His iPhone was snatched and in the minutes that followed, police electronically traced the device and chased and caught the thug. It is a fascinating display of how brilliant British bobbies can be, given the tools and the opportunity. The incident also highlights a glaring weakness in the system. This knife-wielding thug robbed Symonds just 14 days after being released early from prison for an identical offence. Prison works. But only as long as we keep them in prison.

NO SURPRISES in the report showing that if you have a stroke at the weekend, your chances of survival are lower because specialist NHS staff will be off duty. But it comes as a shock to discover that the same Monday-to-Friday syndrome infests the rest of the staff. A reader reports a recent stay in hospital when a cleaner was told off by her supervisor, in front of patients, and made to re-clean the ward. My reader reports: "We thought it was a little harsh but understandable and commendable, in view of MRSA. We were very puzzled, however, when the ward was not cleaned at all on Saturday or Sunday. Does this mean there are no germs at the weekend?"

Three involved in con are sentenced

THREE people who helped swindle customers out of thousands in a double glazing con have been sentenced. Paula Bowdler of Quail Close, Heath Hayes, played a leading role in the scheme.

Masterminded by Harkanwaljit Khabra, Avtar Pawar, of Bath Street, Sedgley and Gerald Smith, of CoftonGrove, Longbridge, were also involved.

Customers responded to adverts for cheap double glazing but the work was often never completed.

Working under the company names of Stormguard then Town and Country, the group included a small-print condition that money had to be handed over before the work began. At first, shoddy work was completed, but from mid-2008 onwards, work was never carried out at all.

Khabra would arrange for a salesman, initially Pawar and later Smith, to visit people's homes to complete orders and take deposits.

Pawar, aged 45, was given a nine-month sentence suspended for two years and told to do 180 hours unpaid work after pleading guilty to three charges of fraud.

Bowdler, aged 42, admitted being concerned in an arrangement to facilitate the acquisition of criminal property and was given a six- month sentence, suspended for two years, as well as 180 hours of unpaid work.

Smith, 66, was given a community sentence with 150 hours unpaid work after he admitted fraud.

Khabra, 53, of Lichfield Street, Tipton, pleaded guilty at a pre-trial hearing after initially denying seven charges of fraud, four of forgery and one of converting criminal property. He was bailed ahead of a pre-sentence report.

Mother and son in pub fracas at family funeral

A MOTHER and son have been ordered to pay out more than £400 by the courts following a fracas which erupted at a family funeral.

Chelsea Johnson and Justin Darby were at a wake at the Pied Piper pub in Cannock when trouble flared. The town's magistrates heard 20-year-old Darby argued with his brother after leaving the pub and stormed off along Brunswick Road.

In anger, he lashed out at a nearby car and smashed the windscreen.

Mr David Lees, prosecuting during Tuesday's hearing, said when police arrived they spoke to Darby, of Dibble Close, Willenhall, and arrested him.

It was then that his 50-year-old mother got upset and started swearing at them.

"Police asked her to move away as she was abusive. But she shouted more abuse at them," said Mr Lees.

Arrested

He added that, despite the warnings, she approached the officers two more times, swearing at them and shouting "leave him alone".

She was then also arrested.

Mr Lees said alcohol played a big part in both the offences.

Darby admitted the charge of criminal damage to the car, which belonged to an innocent member of the public, causing £119.10 of damage.

Johnson, of Chervil Rise, Heath Town, Wolverhampton, also admitted a charge of using threatening words and behaviour.

by Claire Fry

Both had previous convictions, with Darby serving a custodial sentence last year for criminal damage.

The court heard how the funeral on July 4 was that of Johnson's brother, Darby's uncle, and tensions had been running high.

Mr Rob Govier, for Darby, said it was an "unfortunate" incident and the day had been "emotionally charged".

"It was a falling out and he lashed out at something," he added.

"These are the circumstances and these are the consequences," said Mr Govier.

Johnson, who was not represented, said: "It was a mad mistake."

Chairman of the bench, Dennis Westwood, reprimanded Johnson for swearing at police, saying they were "just doing their job". She was ordered to pay the court a total of £155.

Darby was ordered to pay the courts £170 and compensation to the victim of £119.10.

DFS site moves forward

CONSTRUCTORS have put up outside panelling as work to build a major new furniture store in Cannock takes another step forward. Bosses behind the £5.8 million DFS shop at a two-acre site off the A5 at Longford Island in Cannock say the much-anticipated scheme remains on time to open by October. Around 30 jobs are expected to be created at the site, with another unknown firm also expected to be part of the retail development. Once complete, the company will relocate from its store on the Linkway Retail Park on the other side of Longford Island to the new site.

Concern at overgrown foliage

Mother-of-two Sharon Crutchley steps into the road to avoid an overgrown bush

AN OVERGROWN hedge is causing danger for pedestrians in Cannock who say they have to step into a busy road to avoid it.

Mother-of-two Sharon Crutchley said she was almost hit by a car as she tried to clear the shrubbery in Pye Green Road.

She has contacted Staffordshire County Council. Motorists have a tendency to accelerate along the long, straight road despite the presence of speed cameras, said Mrs Crutchley, aged 41. "My girls are aged seven and nine, and the youngest has no sense of danger or awareness of traffic," she said.

The problem hedge is on the property of a private householder in Ardgale Drive, a cul-de-sac that backs on to Pye Green Road.

Staffordshire County Council said the bush appeared to have been cut back in June, but the situation was being monitored.

Selling of diary will be in aid of charity

KIND-hearted Chase residents are being asked to support a new campaign to raise funds for the British Heart Foundation.

The charity, which has a store on Market Place, Cannock and Brook Square, Rugeley, has created a special edition diary in partnership with stationery giants Collins.

The red diary will go on sale next month and 85p from each one sold will go straight to BHF to help fund pioneering research, support and care for heart patients and their families.

Collins has pledged to raise funds for the charity as part of an exclusive three year partnership.

The diary will join BHF's line up of special edition products and will also be available from retailers including Staples and Amazon.co.uk, priced £8.49.

Amit Aggarwal, head of corporate partnerships at the British Heart Foundation, said: "The funds raised through the sale of the Collins BHF 2013 diaries will help us carry out our life-saving work and make a real difference to the lives of heart patients across the UK to help beat heart disease."

Adviser in fund fears

AN independent financial adviser based in Penkridge says the Government has yet to reveal where the funding for adult social care reform is to come from.

Ceri Evans, of Evans Ash Financial Services is a member of Symponia, the national professional body for care fees planning advisers.

She said the Government white paper on adult social care reform contained little on funding.

And she warned that the coalition was pushing the funding problem on to someone else's plate.

Pool to reopen

THE swimming pool at Penkridge Leisure Centre will reopen next Saturday, July 28. It has been closed since Monday, July 16 for relining. Additional public and family swimming will be available daily throughout the summer holidays from 10am to noon at the Cannock Road venue.

Charter Fair in donation to hospice

TOWN councillors in Rugeley have raised £1,200 for its Charter Fair's charity of the year, the Donna Louise Hospice.

Thousands of people turned out to support the annual event, which this year had a Festival of Culture theme to celebrate the Olympics.

A parade through the town centre ended at Hagley Park playing fields where attractions included camel racing, stalls, exhibitions and stands.

Town council chairman Councillor Neil Stanley said: "The Charter Fair was a wonderful day for thousands of people and the event had the added benefit of raising funds for the Donna Louise Children's Hospice, which is a cause well worth supporting.

Benefit

"We are looking forward to presenting a cheque to the Donna Louise Children's Hospice in August"

The council plans to visit the hospice later this summer to see how the valuable funds will support its work to help nearly 200 local children and their families.

Hospice area fundraiser Emma Jones wants anyone wishing to get involved in raising funds to contact her on 01782 654444.

Challenge on orienteering

CHILDREN can get adventurous with an orienteering challenge at Chasewater Country Park later this month.

Lichfield District Council's parks team is hosting the 'Out and About' challenge on both Tuesday 24 and Saturday 28 July, from 1-3pm.

Children aged from six to 14 are asked to solve the clues and scramble through bushes and under bridges.

Trails are available from the boat shed at a cost of £2. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Call 01543 370607.

Sporting skills

YOUNGSTERS are invited to take older relatives along to show off their skills at Penkridge Leisure Centre. Free activities on offer at the Cannock Road venue between July 23 and 28 from 10am to noon include archery and badminton. For further information visit www.sstaffs.gov.uk/sussed or call 01785 714152.

New Express & Star desktop service is proving a real page-turner for readers

Read all about it – on your computer

EXPRESS & Star readers can now get the real story from their favourite newspaper – via their computer desktop.

All editions of the UK's biggest-selling regional newspaper can now be accessed on PCs via the latest page-turning software.

Readers who sign up for a web subscription will get the latest edition of the Midlands Newspaper of the Year award winning title within minutes of publication.

The state-of-the-art technology lets users turn the pages of each edition, zooming in on a story to get even closer.

A selection of stories are complemented each day with video uploads, which allow readers to click to watch footage which adds to our in-depth news and sport coverage.

The archive lets readers view recent back issues or select specific pages to jump through editions.

A smart-search facility means that readers can use keywords to find the story they want, either from the latest edition or the papers in their archive.

To try out the great new service, visit expressandstar.com/digital-subscribe

Users can also save pages to their device, share with friends on social media sites such as Facebook and Twitter, or send articles via email.

Express & Star editor Adrian Faber said: "The new page-turning desktop service is the latest development in the Express & Star's proud tradition of embracing new technology. Our team is committed to producing the best newspapers possible, which readers will enjoy whether it is in the printed version or online."

Head of digital William Beavis said the new service was "the perfect way to digest the Express & Star's excellent content". He said: "It replicates the page-turning experience which so many readers like, allowing readers to get the real news via their desktop."

The new service comes after the Express & Star's app for iPad and iPhone users was launched in January.

Hundreds of readers have taken out subscriptions, with many leaving positive comments on iTunes and the Appstore.

The new desktop service requires a separate subscription to the app. Whether it is via the app or the desktop, users pay £3.99 per month or £1.49 a week to subscribe. If you only want a single edition, a new feature allows you to pay 69p for a one-off purchase.

App users can take advantage of a free seven-day trial before they commit. Desktop customers can view a sample edition before they sign up.

Decision in two months on plans for new cemetery site

A DECISION is due in two months time on plans for a new cemetery near Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley. The site will cover an area of land the size of almost five rugby pitches.

South Staffordshire Council plans to have the cemetery open in spring 2013. It would contain more than 8,000 plots.

The council has submitted plans for the site off Strawberry Lane and Upper Landywood Lane to its own planning department and is expecting a decision next month or in September.

Developer and landowner Ken Lees has gifted the 12-acre site to the council and the transfer of the land has now been completed.

Jackie Smith, director of environmental services, said visitors would be able to use a 19-space car park to the south of the site.

She said: "Pedestrians will be able to walk through a wooden covered gateway made of green oak and chestnut. There will then be a tree-lined avenue bisecting the grounds.

Mrs Smith said the council had applied for a site with 8,000 plots but there would be space for more.

The council is tendering throughout Europe for a company to prepare the site.

She said the site would cost between £260,000 and £300,000 to build and is expected to meet the need for burial plots in the area for between 30 and 50 years.

Royal Mail contract for Briggs

A LEADING Cannock firm which specialises in supplying forklift trucks has landed another multi-million pound deal.

Briggs Equipment has secured a lucrative contract with Royal Mail and post offices across the UK.

The company overcame stiff competition for the deal to supply around 600 trucks to Royal Mail and post office depots across the UK.

It comes just a month after Briggs, which has its headquarters in Orbital Way, was boosted by a multi-million pound deal with Asco, one of the world's leading fuel companies.

Chris Meinecke, chief operating officer at Briggs, said: "This is a high-profile contract in a very competitive marketplace."

End of year show is gangster's paradise

BUDDING performers from a Cannock put on an all-singing, all-dancing performance of Bugsy Malone.

Year 6 pupils at Norton Canes Primary, in School Lane, dazzled parents with the production.

More than 25 youngsters carried out two separate performances, which were the culmination of weeks of work and rehearsals.

Headteacher Paul Whitacre said: "Every year our Year 6 do a production and this time it was Bugsy Malone.

"There were about 120 parents at each performance with 27 different pupils involved.The production was a bit different to what we had done before.

"The pupils have enjoyed it and had the chance to dress as gangsters."

All the youngsters involved had been working on the show since May, with staff at the school helping with costumes and scenery."

On-street parking fees to boost council coffers

SHOPPERS using on-street parking bays in Cannock town centre will be charged 60p for every half hour under new proposals.

The plans could rake in more than £150,000 a year.

Drivers can currently park for free but must leave within 20 minutes at 37 bays in Market Place, Church Street, High Green and Queen Street. The new charge is part of a scheme to introduce an extra 23 bays across the district, boosting total on-street provision to 60 spaces.

Existing 'no waiting' zones at a further four sites could be converted to paid parking if a pilot scheme proves successful. These are opposite the library in Manor Avenue, near the bus depot in Stafford Road, outside the police station in Wolverhampton Road and adjacent to Morrisons in Mill Street.

Staffordshire County Council officers are recommending the 60p fee should initially be introduced at a strip of 12 spaces outside Lloyds TSB in Market Place.

The initiative could eventually be extended to Hednesford and Rugeley.

Officers estimate the charge would generate £169,000 a year if rolled out in Cannock town centre, with running costs setat £15,600 and installing signs and ticket machines costing around £45,000.

Cannock Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman said: "If it does mean people can park for longer I think it will be a positive."

Pals leg it on fundraiser

Councillor Mike Sutherland, left, with Alex Arnott and other walkers

ELEVEN friends from Cannock travelled to Scotland for a 74-mile sponsored walk in aid of Help for Heroes.

The men, all from Chadsmoor, walked from Fort William to Inverness in four days.

The team called themselves 21 and a half legs as one of the men taking part, 53-year-old Kevin Shemwell, lost a leg in a mining incident at the age of 21. He was walking alongside will Alex Arnott, aged 57, Sean Pugh, 43, Butch Hale, 53, Tony Jones, 34, Lee Allport, 37, Dave Jones, 47, Tonna Worsey, 47, John Willis, 39, Matthew Palmer, 32, and Tony Pedley, 60.

Hawks Green Councillor Mike Sutherland said: "These 11 guys have given their time and commitment to such an inspiring idea."

Ramble group meets up

A NINE-mile moderate walk by the Chase & District Ramblers on Sunday, July 22, will be followed by an easier five-mile trek on Wednesday (25). The first is at Hartington and Crowedecote. Meet at Hednesford rail station car park, in Anglesey Street for a 9am departure. The follow-up is at Brindley Heath and the Heart of England Way, departure time 10am from Marquis Drive.

Ice cream trade given a licking by wet summer

Joe Falletta, now aged 84, from Cannock Diaries, has being selling ice-cream since the 1960s

ICE cream sellers are counting the cost of the wettest June on record.

The first double-dip recession since the 1970s has also contrived to hit ice cream men where it hurts – in the pocket.

Throughout the region, some owners are also hit by the cost of street trading licence fees, which can vary and be complicated, although in Cannock that amounts to just £50 per year per vehicle. Joe Faletta, who was born in Sicily, set up Cannock Dairies in 1962. He worked in the mines before setting up the ice-cream business, which now has nine vans.

Joe, 84, says: "I originally started the business in Stoke-on-Trent but moved to Cannock in the 1960s. The business has changed because there are more people who don't have as much money as they used to."

Joe's son Tony, 50, now runs the business in Norton Canes and says the weather has been their biggest enemy this year. "When the weather is good I go out in a van but a lot of shows and carnivals have been cancelled which we would normally do well at," he said.

"In the last 14 weekends we have only had one dry one."

Tony's two brothers Steven and Carl also go out on the vans and say on a sunny day they are still popular.

"We are still welcome and parents love it – it's a nice treat for their children and not too expensive," he added.

Readers assured on future of library

I WRITE to reassure readers about the future of Cannock Library and to correct the scaremongering from John Kraujalis in The Chronicle of July 5.

As I've stated a number of times, Staffordshire County Council has a clear policy to maintain libraries and the valuable service they provide to our communities.

However, if we see an opportunity to improve our branches or even move them into bigger and better premises, we would be foolish not to consider it.

That is exactly what is happening in Cannock.

We are in discussions about a potential new home for the library that is bigger, is more modern and would enable us to provide even better services for its 16,000 users.

Our top priority is improving the service, not selling the existing building.

PAT CORFIELD
County Councillor

New road measures after safety campaign

RESIDENTS of Station Road, Hednesford have for many years rightly been concerned about speeding and parking on this artery road.

The increased use of Station Road made necessary by the recent closure of Victoria and Market Street during the town's regeneration has shown the typical volumes that can be expected as more shoppers visit the centre when Tesco and the other stores are fully functioning.

Action on the matter was clearly necessary so in April I surveyed all the surrounding and affected neighbourhood and at least 50 concerned residents suggested that we really needed to do something. The campaign with the support of Staffordshire County Council highways and Cannock police, has led to several new measures which are hopefully now having some affect. Motorists will see "SLOW" signs on the road itself and currently there is a high visibility poster campaigning calling for them to "Kill Your Speed".

Monitoring of speeds showed an average above the legal 30 mph, with some over 45 mph.

An action day with speed guns by the local police was effective in highlighting the issue. We now wait for Cannock Chase Council to provide the long promised 30mph bin stickers to give a weekly reminder to motorists. We hope Cannock police will continue to monitor responsible parking. We are also hoping for footpath improvements to help pedestrian safety.

I would like to thank all the residents who took the time to respond to the survey, Cannock police for their prompt action in raising awareness, Hednesford county councillors who were right behind the issue and Staffordshire County Council highways for listening and acting.

Treason claim over failure to protect us

AS FIRST lord of the Treasury, David Cameron's first command is to protect his country and its people, so what does he do?

He cuts £11million of funding to Mid Staffs Hospitals at a loss of 165 beds and 20 per cent of its nurses, ends 300 years of the 3rd Battalion Mercian Regiment (The Staffords), cuts funding to Staffordshire Police by £34million before 2015 losing 395 officers, 375 staff and 25 PCSOs.

Social care has been destroyed, finance grants to the council reduced by £192,000 each year, employment for the disabled is being decimated and funding to Staffordshire Library Service has been cut by £735,000 over three years.

The total amount needed to fund all of the above amounts to just two days money we give the European Union without any constraints.

Mr Cameron's failure to protect us is treason.

Immigration adding to our rich heritage

I HAVE to assume that the correspondent hiding behind the pseudonym "Life's Observer" and pontificating on immigration is probably a white Anglo-Saxon Caucasian and therefore is himself/herself derived from immigrants.

Angles arrived in the British Isles from Germany, Saxons similarly and Caucasians hail from Asian Russia. Immigration into England ("this sceptred isle", your correspondent ignoring Scotland, Wales & Northern Ireland) has occurred since pre-history.

Immigration has simply turned us into what we are from the Celts, through the Romans, the Anglo-Saxons and the Normans. Recent immigration from the west (including the Caribbean), the east (including India and Pakistan), the south (including Africa) has added richly to our heritage in culture, arts, religion, the professions and business – long may it continue. If we are a coffee-coloured nation in 100 years so much the better for being so.

Production such a tonic

RECENTLY I went twice to see The Wind in the Willows production at Chadsmoor Junior School. It was performed by Chadsmoor Performing Arts and it was sensational.

What a tonic. The children that took part were brilliant.

The make-up and costumes were amazing.

Congratulations to everybody involved in the production. They must have all worked very hard, it and showed.

NHS in safe hands?

THERE are many people calling for the A&E to open at night at Stafford Hospital but this is not the only problem there. In the name of efficiency many of the behind the scenes services at Stafford are being transferred to Stoke which will impact on the general public far more than the closure of the night-time A&E.

Workers, along with samples for testing, will have to travel many more miles from Stafford to Stoke.

The NHS is safe in Tory hands, that is their motto. See what happens in the next couple of years.

Old Fashioned Values Pay Dividends For Cloudy2Clear

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that his approach is the key. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Some people may call the way I do things a little old-fashioned but it's amazing how a simple mix of manners, punctuality and personal service increases your business. I'm constantly taken aback by customers who are shocked that we turn up when we say we will, do the job that is required and clean up after ourselves. I'm afraid it indicates to me that there are many companies who don't and that's just not fair to the customer.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Walsall, Wolverhampton, Dudley, Cannock, Bridgnorth & Stourbridge areas and Brian is finding that his ethos is proving to be a major factor in his success. 'When I started out I just did the things that came naturally to me. I really hate being let down by tradesmen so I was determined not to let that happen to my customers. As it turns out that little bit of extra care has meant I get friends and family of people I have done work for on the phone constantly so it's not just personally satisfying but good for business too. At the end of the day it's not rocket science, is it?'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

BOILER SCRAPPAGE SCHEME IS BACK, GET A £400 VOUCHER FOR YOUR OLD BOILER

In 2010 the government ran a scheme in which domestic home owners could replace their expensive to run gas boiler for a new condensing boiler, this scheme was set up to help home owners with the initial cost of replacing the boiler plus helping the government in reaching its carbon emissions target.

The £400 voucher could be redeemed when replacing an old, inefficient central heating boiler for a new high efficient gas boiler.

APH Services Ltd of Rugeley have re introduced the Scrappage scheme for a limited time, Matt Clarke of APH Services ltd said "the £400 voucher is a great way for local home owners to replace their boilers during these hard economic times."

Vouchers will be given to the first 100 customers meeting the criteria so you are advised to inform family and friends ASAP.

A rated gas condensing boilers are 90% efficient and with the correct thermostatic controls can save you 30% on your gas bill, that's up to £350 per year in an average 3 bed house.

Company in hazardous substance storage bid

A COMPANY which makes animal food has applied to prepare and store environmentally hazardous products at its site in Rugeley.

Premier Nutrition has submitted a bid to Cannock Chase Council to store substances classed as 'dangerous for the environment' at Levels Industrial Estate in Rugeley. Residents are concerned about the proposals, which are due to be debated on August 13.

Copper, zinc and manganese compounds would be among 349.5 tons of material Premier Nutrition wants to store.

The proposals follow a rejected planning application from another company to store asbestos at the site.

Councillor Ray Easton said even though the firm was valuable, it would be wrong to allow something that could endanger lives.

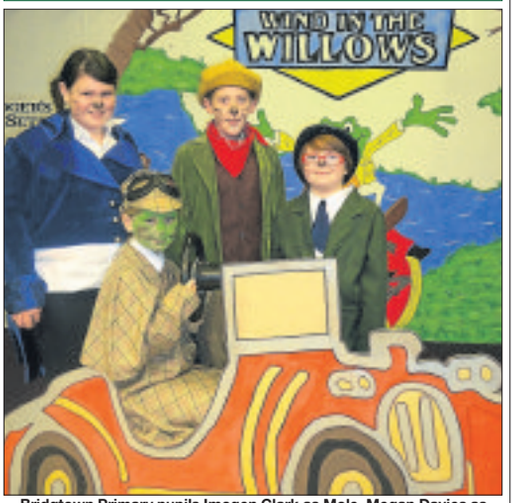
"I don't think the local people around here will like knowing that it could be coming here," he said.

Tom Harris, compliance manager at the company, said it was because of a growing market that they needed to store large quantities of ingredients to meet demand.

He added: "A small number of these ingredients are rated as environmentally hazardous. We take this responsibility seriously and follow strict management processes."

He added: "We are regulated by a number of government and industry bodies and we have an environmentally permitted site with an environmental management accreditation system."

Children in classic play



Bridgtown Primary pupils Imogen Clark as Mole, Megan Davies as Toad, Joseph Gough as Ratty and Molly Gripton Cook as Badger

PUPILS marked the 100th birthday of their school by performing a classic play.

Year 6 children from Bridgtown Primary School showcased their own adaptation of Kenneth Grahame's Wind in the Willows to parents and friends. The show marked the end of the North Street school's anniversary celebrations.

Teacher Amanda Beard said the performance had been a great success and praised the children for their dedication to the play.

Lumberjills – and jacks — take time out to pose for this old picture

Lumberjills at work during the Second World War

A Lumberjills newsletter produced during the war

When tree fellers had jills to do the lumbering

THEY came to Staffordshire to fell trees for vital timber in the Second World War, some of them still teenagers away from home for the first time.

by Marion Brennan

Just like Jack in the children's nursery rhyme had his Jill, so the lumberjacks of Cannock Forest had their lumberjills to take over their work when they were called to fight at the Front.

Now the search is on to find women who worked in Staffordshire's woodlands during the 1939-45 conflict. The little-known lumberjills made a crucial contribution supplying timber for use as pit props and aircraft manufacture, and even in bomb-making.

At its peak, the Women's Timber Corps, set up 70 years ago, had about 8,000 members, young women who were billeted with families or in camps.

They felled and planted trees, measured them and drove tractors. Members of the WTC, an off-shoot of the Land Army, wore distinctive green uniforms and had their own beret badge featuring a conifer tree.

Today there are still lumberjills but these days machinery does much of the heavy work. Jason MacLean, of the Forestry Commission, which has launched the lumberjill search, said: "It was tough work back then as every tree had to be cut down by hand.

"Even in wartime the women performing this work could cut down 30 trees using a two-hander cross saw if they became very proficient. They really blazed a trail for the women who came after them."

Modern-day lumberjill Jacqui Blackford, based at Birches Valley on Cannock, Chase does not chop down trees but is involved in the important work of introducing schoolchildren to the forest and helping to educate them about this special environment.

Her female colleagues are involved in planning, planting, design and management of the forest and many can use a chainsaw if required.

The 49-year-old former veterinary nurse said: "I've always been an outdoor girl, and it's nice now to have the forest as your office or classroom.

"Education has become an important part of our work."

The Forestry Commission say many women from the region must have served as lumberjills in the war but very little is known about where they were posted locally. Possible postings could have included Cannock Forest.

Anyone who was a lumberjill or had a family member who served in a Forestry Commission woodland during the last war is asked to contact Louise Fleetwood on 01623 821 457 or email louise.fleetwood@forestry.gsi.gov.uk

Talk has all the fun of the fair

CHASE TERRACE LADIES CLUB

NED Williams was June's guest speaker with a talk entitled "All the fun of the fair", accompanied by a fascinating slide show depicting the life of the travelling funfair folk.

Ned's talk gave everyone insight into what is really like on the fairground.

Fairground folk are very proud of their heritage and the children's schooling is of the utmost importance although most of their attendance is between November and the spring. They do well in their exams but still work on the fair in between.

Children are often keen to get properly involved and can be given their first ride or attraction as young as 13.

Ned said fairground life was physically hard but there was lots of fun and birthdays were always celebrated in style. He can be contacted on 01902 773376 or at nedwilliams@tou cansurf.com

Refreshments followed and Pauline Hewitt brought along a delicious array of home-made cakes for which the ladies gave a donation.

A total of £50 was made which Pauline will be donating to Cancer Research along with sponsorship from the Race for Life. Margaret Withers won the raffle.

A group of 29 ladies enjoyed a lovely day out at Powis Castle and Gardens.

Ed's set to Rule as new Lions president

Ed Rule, left is handed the chain of office by outgoing President Mac Singleton

RUGELEY LIONS

TO CELEBRATE the end of the International Lions year, the Rugeley club hosted a skittles evening at the 1st Rugeley Scouts HQ for members and other local service organisations to celebrate.

In the last 12 months Rugeley Lions have donated well over £3,000 to local and international causes and outgoing President Mac Singleton said he was proud of what a relatively small group of individuals had collectively achieved by working together.

In recognition of his outstanding support and fundraising efforts Tim Burgin was given the "Lion of the Year" award. Treasurer, Peter Fielding, was given a long service pin for his dedicated 15 years.

Incoming President, Ed Rule, said he was very flattered to be invited to take on the role.

Any group or individual wishing to join Rugeley Lions can call 01543 871981.

Good turnout in bad weather

BURNTWOOD WI

DESPITE the appalling weather there was a good attendance welcomed by president Gwyneth. The room was colourfully decorated Jubilee-style, setting the mood for the evening.

Members enjoyed cakes given by Linda Jenkins in celebration of her 65thbirthday, and wine given by Yvonne Instone celebrating her daughter's wedding.

John Millet, assisted by Tim Cope, gave a very informative talk on the work of Burntwood Lions and were thanked by Judy Griffiths.

The competition, for a souvenir or memento of Elizabeth II, was won by Christine Lanchester with a picture she embroidered in 1953.

Health bosses pleased by award nominations

BOSSES say the standard of nominations for a staff awards scheme at Cannock Chase and Stafford hospitals has been very pleasing.

Chief executive Lyn Hill-Tout said early entries for the Mid Staffs Stars awards had been of very high standard. Nominations by the public or staff end on July 31.

A ceremony, supported by the Stafford & Cannock League of Hospital Friends and sponsors, will be held on September 28 at the Chase Golf Club, in Pottal Pool Road, Penkridge.

Mrs Hill-Tout said: "We are encouraging the local community to make a nomination and help highlight the positive aspects of services at Mid Staffs."

THE BEAUTY of Cannock Chase has been captured in a new photography exhibition.

Robert Cartwright, from Stafford, has put together the exhibition which is currently on display at Artworx Gallery on Avon Road, Cannock.

Trained as an electrical engineer, Mr Cartwright was made redundant in 1978 and began a new career in photography, creating images for promoting Staffordshire as a tourist destination. His new exhibition will be on show for the rest of the month.

Gallery manager Ashley Corrigan said Artworx promoted different artists from the Staffordshire area each month.

She added: It's great to promote local artists and get people from the area to buy local art. Robert's exhibition highlights his love of the region.

"His appreciation for colour, composition and capturing the essence of Cannock Chase is evident."

Pieces from the exhibition are available to buy. The gallery is open from 9am-5.30pm on Monday to Friday and until 5pm on a Saturday.

UFO sighting claim on Chase discussed

A SUSPECTED UFO sighting over Cannock Chase 24 years ago was discussed at Government level, it has been revealed.

Newly-declassified documents, released last week, show that lights in the sky were spotted on May 16, 1988.

by Marion Brennan

The alleged incident was raised with defence chiefs after it was reported to Bill Cash, Conservative MP for Stafford at the time.

The sighting, witnessed by a number of people, was revealed in Ministry of Defence papers.

In a letter sent to Mr Cash, a resident, whose name was concealed in the documents, wrote: "I saw this object for a good four minutes from start to finish.

"Sitting by my lounge window, I observed two bright lights at approximately 9.40pm approaching from the Acton Trussell/Penkridge direction."

The author included a sketch and described seeing two triangle-shaped objects making a faint sound and climbing vertically into the sky.

Other accounts were sent to Mr Cash, including character references declaring those who saw the lights were "perfectly sane".

The reports prompted Mr Cash, now the MP for Stone, to write to Roger Freeman, Under Secretary of State for the Armed Forces.

In response, Mr Freeman said the MoD received similar reports but the cause was more likely airline traffic from Birmingham Airport.

Green Day tribute at Tack

THE UK's number one Green Day tribute band Green Bay are playing at The Tackeroo in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath next Friday night (July 27). Support on the Night is from up and coming new rock and roll band Jimmy And The Hound Dogs. Doors open at 8pm and admission is £5. Call 01543 423124.

It's carnival capers at town's annual fun day

Dancers from St Luke's Primary School at the Cannock Carnival

The Cannock Army Cadet Force

IT was carnival time in Cannock as hundreds of people turned out for the annual celebration.

A succession of floats formed part of last Saturday's major event.

It was the third time the carnival had been held since its revival in 2010 and town centre bosses were happy with the number of visitors.

The star of the show was 10-year-old Abbi Edwards who was crowned Carnival Queen by Councillor Mrs Zaphne Stretton.

The carnival also featured bands from Westhill Primary School and the Drum Corps, an array of market stalls, children's shows, face painting and pony rides.

There were clowns and stilt-walkers to entertain the hordes of people watching while youngsters also had the chance to have pony rides.

Carnival-goers also enjoyed great food and had the chance to pick items up at bric-a-brac stalls. Several charities were holding fundraising stalls, including Abducted Angels, which is run by Sean Felton, from Norton Canes who rescued his three-year-old son from Thailand when he was taken out of the country by his estranged mother.

Carnival Queen Abigail Edwards, aged 10, centre, with attendants Rosalyn Baker and Roberta Foley

Pupils and staff from Bridgtown Primary School set sail for the Cannock Carnival procession

A procession of floats left Cannock Park at 1.45pm with the crowning of this year's Carnival Queen taking place at 2pm at the bandstand next to the bowling green.

Abbi, of St Mary's Primary School, was joined by her attendants – Robert Foley, aged 11 and 10-year-old Rosalyn Baker, who are both pupils at St Luke's Primary.

Longford house Beefeater Restaurant gave a voucher away to the best float. Organiser Sheila Dunning thanked all concerned for helping to make the day such a success.

Care group could double in size following buyout

A CANNOCK-based care group has been bought by a private equity firm that plans to double its size.

The value of the deal is not being disclosed but London-based NBGI has been provided with more than £1 million funding from the The Co-Operative Bank to assist with the purchase of Horizon Care.

Horizon Care, based in Longford Road, comprises 13 residential care homes and three schools in Staffordshire, Greater Manchester, Lancashire, Liverpool and Kent, providing care for children with behavioural needs.

Founded in 2000, it runs the Horizon School in Cannock and care homes including Fairview, Cannock, The Arches, Chase Terrace and Ford Cottage, near Stafford.

Solution

NBGI has been looking to invest in the specialist children's care market for some time and says it sees the acquisition of Horizon Care as an opportunity to build a leading child care business while offering local authorities a long-term solution for quality care.

Belinda Berkeley, who led the acquisition for NBGI, said: "I am delighted that we are able to assist in Horizon Care's future growth, building on the business's existing strengths and creating a leading children's care provider."

NBGI intends to double the size of the Horizon Care business over the next three to five years.

No changes have been made to the existing management team, led by director of care Amanda Knowles. Thelma Turner has been brought in as chief executive.

Church fair salvaged

A SHOPPING complex came to the rescue of a Hednesford church whose summer fair was in danger of being cancelled. Last Saturday's St Peter's fair was in jeopardy because of the heavy rainfall. The Lightworks in Market Street stepped in to host the fair and it was such a success that £880 was raised to support the parish church.

Pledge on open garden

David and Anne Smith are opening up their garden to the public

A PENKRIDGE couple have vowed the weather won't dampen their plans to open up their garden to the public this weekend.

Anne and David Smith have pledged to hold their 10th open garden event on Sunday (July 22) even if torrential downpours continue.

The retired couple have spent tireless hours in the garden of their Dene Close home. This year all the money they raise will be going to Katharine House Hospice. The couple have raised thousands of pounds since they first came up with the idea to share their masterpiece with other garden lovers.

Retired David, 75, said: "It's a labour of love, we always keep it nice as we enjoy it. Last year we had between 100 and 150 people."

The garden will be open from 11am-5pm. Admission for adults is £3, children go for free. There will be refreshments available.

Restaurant to open in town jobs boost

A NEW restaurant is set to open in Rugeley in a jobs boost for the town. The Silsila will open to customers in Horsefair on September 12. It is unclear how many jobs will be created.

Owner Mish Rahman said the restaurant would seek to offer customers a variety of offers each week, such an early bird special. He added: "Our menu will be a recession buster. Customers will enjoy the food, the experience, the atmosphere and the service."

The restaurant will be operating unlicensed which will allow customers to bring their own alcohol.

Get the play day bug

Lynsey Eastwood, left, and Claire Williams, from the Wolseley Centre, are inviting families on bug hunts

UP to 1,000 people are expected to flock to Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's annual play day.

Bug hunting, willow weaving and den-building are among the activities which will be laid on for families at the Wolseley Centre on July 31. There will also be space hopper races, a bouncy castle and climbing wall.

The trust's community and education officer Lynsey Eastwood said: "Our play day is a really big annual event and last year it attracted more than 1,000 people.

"Our aim is to give children an amazing experience of the natural world through a play activity, and also give families lots of ideas for activities to do back at home in their garden or local park."

A barbecue and refreshments will be available during the event between 11am and 4pm.

The cost is £3 per child with all activities included, or advance tickets are available from the Wolseley Centre for £2.

Gran's account raided by addict

A DRUG addict who plundered his own grandmother's bank account has been jailed for a year.

Craig Westwood, of Ash Lane, Great Wyrley, stole more than £5,000 from 80-year-old Beryl Lees and spent it on drugs, Stafford crown court heard.

by Harry Gottschalk

Westwood had been entrusted with his grandmother's bank card and PIN so he could run errands for her, prosecutor Mr Pat Sullivan said.

But between November 5 and December 9 last year, crack addict Westwood used it to withdraw money from cash machines on a daily basis. The total amount stolen was £5,420

The theft was discovered in January this year when Mrs Lees tried to use the bank card herself to buy a carpet and it was rejected.

Westwood, aged 33 pleaded guilty to theft and while on bail, he committed five separate offences of shoplifting joints of meat between May 30 and July 8, three at the Spar supermarket in Pelsall and two at Walsall's Co-Op, all of which he admitted.

Mr David Bratt, defending, said Westwood had been "ostracised" by the rest of the family because of the theft and his mother Angela Williams had since died.

Mr Bratt said Westwood had been introduced to crack cocaine by a woman he formed a relationship with, though there was no suggestion she had put him up to stealing from his grandma.

Guided tour at hospital

CANNOCK Chase Hospital is to throw open its doors to the public next month. Staff will be giving guided tours of departments and there will also be displays and competitions at the event in Brunswick Road. It starts at 4pm on August 16. Lyn Hill-Tout, chief executive of the Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, said: 'We hope local people will take the opportunity to come along to meet staff, and get an insight into the range of services we provide at Cannock."

Passengers are happier with rail travel – survey

RAIL passengers in the West Midlands are more satisfied with their travel than a year ago, according to a new survey. Centro, the region's transport authority, has welcomed the findings of the National Passenger Survey.

In the survey the West Midlands was ranked fourth out of England's seven passenger transport executives, with all its scores either increasing on the previous year or staying the same. Overall satisfaction in the West Midlands is 88 per cent, above the national average.

Councillor Kath Hartley, chairman of Centro's putting passengers first committee, said: "We have done very well. However, there is no room for complacency."

Mother set up a credit card in name of ex-tenant

A MOTHER of two splashed out almost £6,000 on a credit card she set up in the name of the previous tenant of her home, a court heard.

Nicola Rowley, aged 44, went on a wild spending spree, buying clothes, electrical goods and home furnishings, Cannock magistrates court was told.

She and Deborah Corcaron had taken part in a home exchange in Cannock Chase with a housing association last June.

Miss Claire Spooner, prosecuting, said: "The move went smoothly. They were going to be living close to one another. They became quite friendly with each other, and Mrs Corcaron did not doubt her. But she did start to notice some items of post were not being received."

Last month Mrs Corcaron received a letter from a debt collection agency on behalf of Capital One credit cards and the police were called in.

Rowley had attempted to spend £5,896.79 – including £4,561.28 on clothes, electrical goods and homeware. She spent £312 on a washing machine and tried to claim £329.56 of cash credit.

Rowley, of Handel Court, Cannock, had previously pleaded guilty to five counts of fraud by false representation between June and December 2011.

Mr Paul Jenkins, defending Rowley, said: "This was the temptation of trying to improve the general situation in that new home setting.

"She did not engage in this fraud in a malicious way. The debts in question are all transferred into Mrs Rowley's name and she is undertaking payments," he added.

She was given a 12-month community order and ordered to pay £85 costs.

Parks still flying high with Green Flag status

FOUR of Cannock Chase Council's green spaces have again been recognised as among the best in the country after retaining their Green Flag status.

Green Flag awards are the national benchmark for quality green spaces. National winners include Elmore Park in Rugeley, Ravenhill Park in Brereton, Castle Ring in Cannock Wood and Cannock Park, all of which won last year. They stood out after impressing the judges with their excellent use of green space, well-maintained facilities and high standards.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, Cannock Chase Council Culture and Sport Leader, said: "The Council manages more than 1,000 hectares of parks and green spaces right across the District – that's the size of about 1,600 football pitches.

"Providing high quality, free open spaces is so important to the quality of people's lives and we are committed to continue doing this. Council employees who look after the parks work very hard throughout the year to ensure facilities are maintained to the highest of standards."

Only green spaces that are free to enter and open to the public are eligible to win an award through the scheme, which is run by Keep Britain Tidy, BTCV and Groundwork Green-Space.

Dog Aid craft fair

A SPRING craft fair raised £170 for Cannock charity Dog Aid. The event was held at the Avon Business & Leisure Centre in Avon Road. Organiser Jackie Linton handed over the money to Dog Aid chairman Sandra Fraser.

Lions funding buys disabled boy a trike

A FUNDRAISING group has come to the aid of a disabled young Cannock boy. Cannock Lions Club are always keen to ensure that money raised is used to benefit the local community and by donating £569 to Children Today, helped to fund a specialised tricycle for a Cannock boy with cerebral palsy.

A Lions spokesman said: "It is difficult for him to get suitable exercise opportunities and a specially-adapted tricycle is the perfect way for him to get that benefit while also having fun and playing with friends and family."

Children Today's Regional Fundraising Manager Emma Fawcett said "We would like to thank the Cannock Lions for their generous support."

It's Ball and chain after accountant's 10-year gift

AN Independent chartered accountant has celebrated 10 years in business by receiving a surprise 'chain of office' from his very first client.

Len Till, owner of Till Jig and Tool, in Cocksparrow Lane, Huntington, near Cannock, is one of the Midlands' last remaining chain makers.

The unusual way Michael Ball was appointed by Len, in 2002, means he is particularly pleased he is still a client.

Michael, a principal at Aims Accountants for Business, based at Albrighton, near Wolverhampton, said: "I was calling companies to offer my services and telephoned Len.

"He told me my call was a great surprise, but perfect timing, because in the last 15 minutes he'd been told his accountant has passed away and I was the first person to call since he'd got the sad news. It was an amazing coincidence."

Len said: "I was shocked to get the call.

Finance

"It has turned out very well, because Michael has given me excellent advice over the years. Another accountant needn't call, because I hope Michael has many more years left in him."

Michael became an independent chartered accountant after building a successful career in corporate accountancy, including holding finance director roles for a number of Midland businesses.

He also recently became a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Accountants for England and Wales.

Len said Michael's advice had helped him stay in business while many other chain makers in Staffordshire and the Black Country, had gone to the wall.

He added: "In the last 15 years or so, the industry has been hit by imports from the Far East which is very sad. I have found a niche which still gives me a living.

"But it wouldn't have been possible without the expertise available from an accountant like Michael.

"You don't just get number crunching, you get real business advice."

Len, who started as a toolmaker, set up his business in 1988. He made the automated machines that now churn out up to a kilometre of chain every day, for use in products such as window shutters and security devices.

Michael said: "It's a privilege to work with people like Len, who have great skills and business acumen. They are the bedrock from which our future industrial and economic success will grow.

"I hope, though, that he won't mind if I don't wear his gift every time I visit him."

Protest in city follows move to axe Staffords

A PROTEST calling for a Government rethink on plans to axe the 3rd Battalion the Mercian Regiment, formerly the Staffords, will take place next week.

Tuesday's event has been organised by the Lichfield branch of Staffordshire Regiment Association and will coincide with demonstrations across the rest of the UK.

Earlier in the month, the Government announced the 3rd Battalion the Mercian Regiment would be axed in the biggest shake-up of the Army in more than a century.

The former Staffordshire Regiment will disappear in cuts to reduce the Army from 102,000 troops to 82,000 by the end of the decade – its lowest level since the Napoleonic Wars.

Streets

The move will break a 300-year direct link between the region and the military.

A Facebook group under the name of Dave Gouldingay has been set up ahead of the protest in Lichfield, which starts at 11am.

The event will take place in the Lichfield Garden of Remembrance. People are asked to be there at 10.45am for a 11am start.

Mr Gouldingay said: "What happens to all of these thousands of people when they are made redundant – how many more ex-soldiers are going to end up on the streets?"

The regiment merged with two others to form the Mercians in 2007, with 3Mercian being referred to as "formerly the Staffords".

The Army is to lose 17 major units in the cuts.

Nearly fifth of parking tickets are withdrawn

AROUND a fifth of all parking tickets handed out in Cannock during the past three months have been rescinded, according to new figures.

Despite a rise in the total number of penalty charge notices issued, there was a drop in amount drivers actually paid as more were cancelled.

by Harry Gottschalk

Blue badge holders were the main beneficiaries, due to a policy which allows their first offence to go unpunished. During April, May and June some 1,592 tickets were handed out to drivers.

This is compared to 1,511 for the same three months in 2011. The figures represent a 5.4 per cent year on year rise.

However just 1,282 tickets generated a fine, compared to 1,301 for the same period last year.

The latest figures show an average cancellation rate of 19.5 per cent, of which 11.75 per cent were cancelled for blue badge holders who failed to display their badges correctly.

Of 310 cancellations, 186 were rescinded because of mistakes by blue badge holders. Just under four per cent – 57 tickets – were cancelled as valid tickets had not been displayed by drivers correctly.

A further four were cancelled due to equipment faults, four more were withdrawn due to disputes over signs and lines, five were revoked as drivers had been loading or unloading their vehicles, 11 were annulled due to officer error and a total of 38 were rescinded for "miscellaneous reasons."

Councillor Janos Toth, who sits on the joint parking committee and is the authority's deputy leader, said the parking panel would be looking at ways to reduce the cancellation rate.

Youngsters dish up a winner at cookathon

BUDDING chefs at a Hednesford school came out on top in a healthy cooking contest.

Youngsters at Hednesford Valley High School were crowned West Midlands regional champions in the Let's Get Cooking Big Cookathon 2012.

Pupils will receive framed certificates and a slice of a £5,000 prize pot to spend on their cookery club.

More than 52,000 children and adults from across the country signed up to take part in the challenge, which involved teams setting up a community event encouraging people to cook a ham and leek or vegetable crumble.

Tastes

Hednesford Valley High was named top team for involving parents.

Anita Rattan, head-teacher at the Stanley Road school, said: "Let's Get Cooking has added another dimension to the work of the school with our students, families and the community."

She added: "The after school clubs have enabled our students to explore new tastes and textures in a wide variety of foods."

Let's Get Cooking is a growing network of after school cooking clubs which is supported by a £20m grant from the Big Lottery Fund.

More than 400 school-based clubs registered to take part in this year's contest.

Park redevelopment project captures town's imagination

MORE than 4,000 people have had their say on how £2.6 million should be spent to re-develop Hednesford park.

Residents have been asked to help redesign the park – which, subject to planning consent, will include a giant skate park, community room and cafe.

by Harry Gottschalk

Cannock Chase Council is submitting a bid in August for cash from the Heritage Lottery Fund and Big Lottery Fund to invest in major improvements to the park and war memorial.

Also under the current plans, the pavilion would be extended on two storeys and a horticultural training area would be created, allowing volunteers to get involved in the park's upkeep.

Widened

In addition, it would be made more wheelchair friendly with, for example, the gates to the park's tennis courts being widened.

Parking would be improved and increased to cater for the expected increase in users and railings, gates and pillars would be restored. Councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport leader, said: "Our plans for Hednesford Park have really caught the imagination of local people.

"So many residents have got involved in the project and have helped us to shape the plans. Many more have helped us by loaning us photographs of the park and sharing their memories.

"However, I must stress that turning the vision into reality depends on funding from the Heritage Lottery Fund. So much work has gone into the bid and we'll have everything crossed once it's submitted at the end of August."

Work would be carried out on the adjacent war memorial including its railings, gates and pillars.

Scooter club in SNAP fundraiser

A SCOOTER club is planning to help raise funds for a charity that helps children with special needs. The Cannock Crusaders will be holding a music night in aid of SNAP, the Special Needs Adventure Playground. Called Woodfest2, the event is being held at Woodys Music Bar on Market Street in Hednesford on July 28 from 10am. Entry is free.

Di Saunders and Lesley Flint prepare for fun at The Museum of Cannock Chase

Fun for all family at museum

FAMILIES are being invited to a free day of activities at The Museum of Cannock Chase next weekend.

The venue will be holding its annual Summer Family Fun Day on Sunday, July 29.

The event will have a patriotic red, white and blue theme. Punch and Judy shows will take place at 12.15pm, 2pm and 3pm.

Children can check out interactive toys on offer at the museum.

The museum has also announced its programme of family activities for the school summer holidays.

The venue, in Valley Road, Hednesford,is hosting arts and crafts workshops every Wednesday from July 25 to August 29.

The classes will be Olympic-themed, and there will also be outdoor games, children's trails and colouring sessions.

Call 01543 877666 or visit www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/museum

Customers get chance of Olympic Torch look

A SCHOOLGIRL from Hednesford will be showing off the Olympic Torch at a Cannock supermarket next weekend.

Shoppers can see the flame up close at Sainsbury's in Orbital Way and can have their picture taken with it in aid of a charity set up in Hednesford.

Torchbearer Helena Pickerill will be at the store on Saturday, July 28 and will act as the guardian of the torch.

Helena was chosen by students and staff at Kingsmead Technology College to be their Ambassador and carried the flame during the Birmingham leg of the tour on July 1.

Support

The event at Sainsbury's from 1-3pm will raise money for the store's nominated charity, the Hibbs Lupus Trust.

John Hibbs, from Bakers Way, who set up the charity, said: "We're really looking forward to seeing the Olympic Torch and would like to take the opportunity to thank Sainsbury's and Helena for their support."

Customers can make a donation to the Hibbs Lupus Trust by having their photo taken with the torch.

Store boss Rob Hillman said: "We're delighted to invite Helena Pickerill and the Olympic Torch into store and we hope the day helps to raise awareness for our charity of the year."

Youngsters display ring of confidence

Children from Dunston pre-school playgroup enjoy taking part in their Olympic-themed activities

YOUNGSTERS enjoyed a morning of Olympic games at their playgroup near Penkridge.

Bean bag throwing, hobby horse racing and sprint racing were among the activities enjoyed by the children at Dunston Pre-School playgroup.

The morning was held to celebrate the Olympic Games in London, which open next Friday, July 27. Playgroup assistant Zoe Kirby, aged 22 years old, from Cannock said: "All the children, parents and staff had a wonderful morning."

Each child took the time to recreate an Olympic Torch, and parade it round in front of all the spectators. The morning finished off with tea and cake.

Drugs police in flat raid

A SUSPECTED crack house could be closed down after drugs paraphernalia was found during a police raid.

A range of needles and pipes believed to have been involved in the use of Class A drugs were discovered after a search of the flat, in Cannock.

A court closure order and eviction of the occupants was being pursued this week as part of the operation, a collaboration between police and Cannock Chase Council. A combination of plain and uniformed officers carried out the raid at the flat in Salop Drive in Rumer Hill at around 9.15am last Friday, July 13. Ten officers forced entry.

Three people inside the upstairs flat were searched and no drugs were found. However, paraphernalia believed to be linked with drugs was recovered.

A sniffer dog was used during the search throughout the flat. Evidence gained from the raid will now form part of the court application. It followed concerns from members of the public.

Chief Insp Carl Ratcliffe, from Cannock police, said: "Under the crack house legislation anybody who supplies or uses Class A drugs at premises, it gives us the power to close the premises down which means the occupants will then be barred from returning to that address.

Anyone with concerns can call Staffordshire Police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0845 113 5000.

History-making children mark end of school year

Year 6 pupils at St Luke's celebrate being the first group to go all the way through school from nursery

PUPILS from a Cannock school which opened eight years ago have become the first group to make it through the entire school system – from nursery to Year 6.

St Luke's Primary School opened in 2004 and was the amalgamation of three schools –Walhouse Junior, Cannock Nursery and John Wood Infants – with the latter knocked down to make way for a park created by the development of the Asda supermarket.

Celebrate

Activities to celebrate the end of term have been ongoing all week.

Parent-led group the Friends of St Luke's – which has raised £40,000 since its formation –helped join in the celebrations.

Headteacher Jane Roberts said: "I've been here for all eight years and all the pupils have done brilliantly."

The school is based on New Penkridge Road.

Addict sent to prison for growing cannabis

A DRUG addict who turned to growing his own cannabis after losing his job has been jailed for three months.

Police carried out a search on the home of Craig Rushton, in Park Road, Norton Canes, on New Year's Eve and found 32 plants under cultivation, Stafford Crown Court heard.

Rushton and two friends had spent £1,500 on buying and setting up the equipment, but the crop's street value was around £4,000, said Mr Paul Spratt, prosecuting.

Rushton, aged 23, admitted cultivating cannabis. He told officers he had been smoking cannabis since the age of 15 and had been spending £100 a week on the drug. Mr Chris Clark, defending, said Rushton was not gaining financially.

Father gets jail stretch over death of daughter

THE father of a girl who died seven years after he violently shook her as a baby has been jailed for two years.

Paul Slattery injured eight-week-old Caitlin Wetton, from Cheslyn Hay, so badly that she was left paralysed from the neck down, blind, unable to speak and with severe cerebral palsy.

The shaking episode lasted for up to 10 minutes when she was left in his care for an hour at the family home in Glenthorne Drive in November 2002. Until then she had been in good health and lovingly cared for by her mother Michele Wetton, Birmingham Crown Court heard.

Scalp

Slattery, aged 32, initially denied shaking Caitlin, claiming he had thrown her into the air in play. Later he said he had "waggled" her from side to side, rolling her body on his arms.

Her injuries became apparent when she was admitted to Walsall Manor Hospital as an emergency later that day with a burn to her scalp caused, Slattery alleged, by being placed too closed to a gas fire as she was cold and clammy.

Paul Slattery – jailed

Gareth Walters, prosecuting, said: "The reason for the clamminess was almost certainly the catastrophic brain damage that was developing."

Caitlin began twitching and having fits and was transferred to Birmingham Children's Hospital where doctors found bleeding on her brain.

Slattery served 30 months in jail for grievous bodily harm.

After Caitlin's death in 2010, he was re-arrested in Scotland, and charged with manslaughter. He pleaded guilty.

Nicholas Tatlow, defending, described Slattery as immature and emotionally detached.

Mrs Justice Thirlwall said the sentence reflected Slattery's remorse and previous imprisonment.

Summer fair at care home

AN Animal man and a Hammerwich 'Crufts' competition will be among the attractions at a summer fete next weekend.

It takes place at Hammerwich Hall Residential & Nursing Home, Burntwood Road, from 2.30pm on Sunday, July 29.

Entry is free. Other attractions include a magician, face painting, balloons and stalls selling cards and wrap, cakes, bottles, books toys, games and refreshments.

See artist work

ARTIST Carole Baker is opening up her studio for visitors to watch her at work this weekend. The open day at the Sunnyside Studio, at Rugeley Road, Chase Terrace, takes place on Saturday, July 21, from 10am to 5pm. All of Carole's latest work will be on show.

Cyclist suffers head injury in car collision

A RIDER was airlifted to hospital when his bicycle was involved in a crash with a car.

The incident happened on John Street in Chadsmoor at 1.15pm on Sunday (July 15). A land ambulance and an Air Ambulance, with a trauma doctor on board, attended.

An Ambulance Service spokesman said: "Crews arrived to find a cyclist and a car that had been in collision. The cyclist, a man believed to be in his 20s, was off the pushbike. Crews assessed the man, who had reportedly been unconscious and found he had suffered a serious head injury."

He was anaesthetised and flown to University Hospital North Staffordshire. The car driver did not require hospital treatment.

Young blind rider named Paralympics Ambassador

Olivia Wilson, aged 14, from Cannock, with her mum Sue

A YOUNG blind horserider will be Cannock Chase's Paralympic Flame Ambassador for a special celebration being held across the district next month.

Olivia Wilson, a 14-year-old Cannock Chase High School pupil, has been tipped as a future Paralympian and is firmly set on competing in the 2016 Games in Rio, Brazil.

On Friday, August 24, she will travel to London for the national Paralympic Flame Lighting event as the ambassador for Cannock Chase. She will then bring Paralympic lantern back to the district for the Paralympic Flame Celebration at Chase Leisure Centre the following day.

Olivia took up riding when she was 10 and two years ago won the 'totally visually impaired' section of the Riding for the Disabled Association national championships, her very first competition. Last weekend, she was runner-up in the same competition.

Dancing

Olivia, who has a team of callers positioned around the dressage ring to guide her, said: "I'm really excited to be the Ambassador and I can't wait to go to London. I couldn't believe I'd been chosen."

Olivia's mum Sue said: "Whatever she's wanted to do, Olivia has done it. She's had swimming lessons with her friends, she's done trampolining, dancing and played football. She's amazing and absolutely nothing will hold her back."

As well as all the training and the competitions, Olivia and her mum often go horse riding across Cannock Chase.

Olivia was nominated by Doug Smith, a regional instructor for the RDA. He said: "There is no doubt in my mind that Olivia has the potential to be a future Paralympian.

"She is such a determined and pleasant young lady who has great support from her family.

"She is brave, determined and dedicated yet retains a wonderful disposition. I can't think of anyone who is more deserving of representing Cannock Chase," he added.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, Cannock Chase Council Culture and Sport Leader, said: "We're delighted that Olivia will be carrying out this important role for the District. The Paralympic Flame Celebration will be a wonderful celebration of sport and the spirit of the Paralympic movement."

Cannock Chase was chosen earlier this year to host a Flame Celebration to mark the start of the Paralympics. The Flame Celebration takes place at Chase Leisure Centre in Cannock on Saturday, August 25. There will be a Party In The Pool event, sports activities and lots more.

Music at Saturday's event was provided by the Salvation Army Youth Band with St Luke's School cheerleaders providing their winning district championship routine.

M6 snarl-ups caused by attempted metal theft

METAL thieves have struck along a stretch of the M6 motorway just once in the past six months – but still left a £100,000 repair bill.

Highways Agency bosses this week revealed the cost of repair work after suspected metal thieves sparked a blaze in a cable chamber.

The fire in a substation near Junction 10A at Essington knocked out the hard shoulder between West Bromwich and Walsall, leading to peak hour hold-ups. It took a number of days for the fourth lane to be fully operational at peak periods again.

Thirty-two overhead signals, 14 CCTV cameras, 12 traffic counting loops and four emergency roadside telephones were impacted by the attempted theft.

Vandalism

The vandal attack in March was the only one logged by highways chiefs between junctions 7 at Great Barr and 14 at Stafford between January and June 2012 this year.

This compares to eight reports of theft, attempted theft and vandalism of cable from last September to January in the stretch from Cannock to West Bromwich.

A Highways Agency spokesman said action had been taken to crack down on the number of times the motorway is targeted.

"This thoughtless criminal act caused disruption for many road users on the M6 in the West Midlands. The rest of the motorway network remained unaffected as the damage was isolated to a small, yet very busy, section of the M6," she said.

End of year showcase

STUDENTS at Cannock Chase High School gave a demonstration of their skills to family and friends at an end-of-year show.

Presentations on how to make bunting and create chocolate bar moulds were made by the school's design and technology group to a packed audience.

Pupils also gave live cookery demonstrations and took turns on the catwalk to show off their best fashion work. It is the second year they have run the event.

Paula Wiley, director of design and technology at the Hednesford Road school, said students wanted to show off what they did to parents and the local community. The theme this year was the Olympic Games.

"This has been another successful year for us with our learning community going from strength to strength," she said.

"Our student voice team took on the entire organisation of the showcase and I am proud to see the outcome of their hard work and dedication."

There was also a craft fair dedicated to the talents of local designers and makers. Stalls offered hand made jewellery, cards, textiles and confections.

Ellie Mae Connolly, aged 11, and Jasmine Matto, 12, with fellow team members from Cannock Chase High who staged a design and technology Showcase

Driver killed in collision

A DRIVER died when his car left the road and struck a tree in Hednesford. The 23-year-old man, named as Luke Porter from Cannock, was killed when his Renault Clio hit a tree in Brindley Road at 5pm on Friday. He suffered a heart attack after the crash.

TRAVEL

Waltz off to Vienna

A view towards City Hall and Burgtheater

Looking over the roofs in the city of Vienna

PULENCE, decadence, culture as well as the best cakes in the world – Vienna is the traveller's hot ticket for 2012.

Glimmering galleries and museums stand on almost every corner, and coffee-house aromas of ground beans, hot chocolate and honeyed pastries gild the air.

For the third year running, Vienna has been voted the 'most liveable' city in the world.

But while today's Vienna is remarkable, it is the Vienna of the early 1900s that holds such a fascination for visitors. This year is the 150th anniversary of the birth of artist Gustav Klimt, the turn-of-the-century genius whose painting The Kiss is one of the most easily recognisable and revered images in the world. Vienna has pulled out all the stops to celebrate. This year there are more works by Klimt on show than ever before in addition to the wealth of his art which is incorporated into the city's buildings.

Art fans with little time should head straight for the Lower Belvedere palace which is home not only to the largest collection of Gustav Klimts but The Kiss, said to epitomise the spirit of change that heralded the modernist era.

Collection

Other must-sees are The Secession building – which houses the Beethoven Frieze; the Kunsthistorisches Museum which has Klimt's work on the stairway, the ceiling paintings of the Burgtheater; the Wein Museum which has the largest collection of his drawings and the Leopold Museum, which is running Klimt: Up Close and Personal until August 27. Here his masterpieces are exhibited alongside photos of the man himself together with postcards and letters written by him to his muse Emilie Floge over 20 years.

The city is one of the most important cultural centres in the world and is home to the Vienna Boys' Choir, which was founded in 1498 and counts Joseph Haydn and Franz Schubert among past pupils.

For lovers of fresh air, half of the city's total area is made up of gardens, parks, and woods, and as a third of all journeys are made by public transport, they are easy to find. Rests in between are easy with 800 coffee houses dotted throughout the city.

Food is rich and fulsome, while visitors inspired by what they find can visit the many markets and take home their own taste of Vienna.

Surprise as Becky called up

Jessie J, Warwick Castle

TOP pop star Jessie J had a surprise for her fans at Warwick Castle when she invited Bewdley teenager Becky Hill on stage to duet with her on her biggest hit in front of the 20,000-strong crowd.

But both chart-topper Jessie and her protegee Becky, whom she coached to the finals of TV talent show The Voice, forgot the lyrics to Price Tag in the excitement and had to start over again.

The crowd had been warmed up by three acts, Gary Barlow's 17-year-old starlet A*M*E, classy bluesy singer-songwriter Josh Osho and the Scouse answer to McFly, Lawson.

But the gig, which failed to be dampened by one brief shower, hit top gear when Jessie J exploded onto the stage.

She opened with Do It Like A Dude and she was in impressively good voice.

Early highlights included Stand Up, Rainbow and Abracadabra and she dedicated Who You Are to a friend whose birthday was on Friday the 13th.

The show was brought to a close with Laserlight and the classic Domino, but there was no time left for an encore as fireworks lit up the sky.

Meera Syal is in Much Ado About Nothing at Stratford

It's much ado for Meera

WOLVERHAMPTON-born actress and comedienne Meera Syal is making her Royal Shakespeare Company debut this summer as the feisty Beatrice in Much Ado About Nothing.

The Essington-raised former star of Goodness Gracious Me and The Kumars at No 42 will lead an Asian cast as Shakespeare's story of love and deceit is transported to India. The RSC promises audiences at the Courtyard Theatre in Stratford will make their passage to India as soon as they arrive at the theatre with awnings, street stalls and Asian music.

Former Birmingham Rep director Iqbal Khan's production of the romantic comedy runs from July 26 to September 15, and then goes to London's West End.

REVIEW

Audience swept off their feet

Dirty Dancing, Birmingham Hippodrome

FROM the audience reaction Baby and crew certainly did give them the time of their lives.

The packed Hippodrome came alive to the music and incredible choreography of Dirty Dancing which is due to run at the theatre until late summer. This is definitely one not to miss. The standing ovation at the end said it all.

The energetic cast took us back to the summer of 1963, complete with corny jokes and the wonderful songs.

The story is a bit predictable as Baby transforms from having two left feet to near perfect dancing with her holiday love, the dance teacher, but it has a wonderful feel-good factor and everyone lapped it up.

The dancing was superb, no more so than from Johnny (Paul-Michael Jones), who teamed up on stage with Penny (Nicky Griffiths) to teach dancing to the holidaymakers at Kellerman's.

Jill Winternitz was superb as Frances 'Baby' Houseman, who is literally swept off her feet by the dance teacher. The audience were also swept along with the romance.

Kenneth Branagh

Wallander
BBC1, 9pm

It's the final edition of this series, but don't panic – a fourth run will be made, although Kenneth Branagh claims it will be the last. Here, Wallander is disturbed by a visit from Linda's childhood friend Anna Westin late at night. She's a troubled soul who then disappears, and it isn't until later that the detective discovers a link between her and an elderly murder victim whose badly burned body has been found in a shallow grave. Linda returns to Ystad to help her father with the investigation. They worry that Anna may become the latest victim of a religious fanatic.

Pick of the Week

London is on track for a fantastic event

If the comedian Bill Bailey is to be believed, the Olympics opening ceremony is going to be the most excruciating cringe-fest in our history. He foresees an "inflatable Churchill bobbing down the Thames" and a "huge animatronic Yorkshire pudding" in the middle of Wembley Stadium. And that's before the ribbon-cutting Boris Johnson is allowed access to scissors.

Go on, admit it, you wouldn't be surprised if those things were actually involved, would you? After all, we have no real idea what to expect when the eyes of the world turn upon us. All we can hope is that it isn't like our childhood backyard firework displays, when we got all worked up and excited, only for the rock to go "pfft" and then go out.

But let's not be cynical or pessimistic. Let's get enthusiastic. This could be the greatest show on earth, and given that Oscar-winner Danny Boyle is behind the whole thing, it will at least be ambitious and grand in scope.

All we really know is that his vision will be unlike anything we've ever seen before. For a start, the Olympic Stadium will be transformed into the "British countryside". A cast of 10,000 volunteers will help recreate country scenes, against a backdrop featuring farmyard animals and landmarks.

And the opening scene of the £27m ceremony will be called "Green and Pleasant", according to Boyle.

He added the show would create "a picture of ourselves as a nation."

"The best way to tell that story is through working with real people," said Boyle, who has even reserved a role for NHS nurses in proceedings.

The set will feature meadows, fields and rivers, with families taking picnics, people playing sports on the village green and farmers tilling the soil.

Real farmyard animals will be grazing in the "countryside", with a menagerie of 70 sheep, 12 horses, three cows, two goats, 10 chickens, 10 ducks, nine geese and three sheepdogs.

One billion people worldwide are expected to watch the opening ceremony.

The world's largest "harmonically-tuned" bell, weighing 23 tonnes and measuring 2m tall x 3m wide, will ring inside the Stadium to start the Shakespeare-inspired spectacle, featuring 900 children from the six Games host boroughs.

We also know that the panorama also includes two mosh-pits, representing the Glastonbury festival and the Last Night of the Proms, while the music – if recent reports are to be believed – is an eclectic selection ranging from the Beatles to the Monty Python theme tune. Yep, there's that cringe factor rearing its head again!

The performance is followed by the athletes' parade, in which more than 200 countries are represented. Then the Queen will carry out the official opening, before the arrival of the Olympic flame, when the identity of the final torchbearer will be revealed.

On your marks, get set, go!

Sue Barker is among the presenters in Olympics 2012 Opening Ceremony, Friday, BBC1, 9pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Absolutely Fabulous
BBC1, 9.30pm
Patsy and Edina are unlikely representatives for London 2012 – their idea of exercise is wielding another another bottle of champagne. But as Joanna Lumley and Jennifer Saunders return for the last of three specials celebrating Ab Fab's 20th anniversary, it seems even chain-smoking, wine-swilling fashionistas aren't immune from Olympic fever. Admittedly, Eddy is a bit vague on when the Games actually start, but she's still managed to cash in by renting out her home to a Hollywood A-lister – which is all the more impressive given that she's still living there along with her mum (June Whitfield), Saffron (Julia Sawahla) and Bubble (Jane Horrocks).

TUESDAY

Jon Richardson: A Little Bit OCD
Channel 4, 10pm
Have you ever gone back to the house to double-check you really did lock the front door, and then joked it was down to your obsessive compulsive disorder? And if so, did you then wonder why this particular form of illness has somehow become a laughing matter? It's a subject that's been bothering Jon Richardson, who has mined his own quest for control and obsessive nature in his book, It's Not Me, It's You. But while some fans and armchair psychiatrists may have been quick to diagnose him with OCD, Richardson is keen to learn more about what the term actually means and why we feel comfortable bandying it around so casually.

Turn Back Time – The Family
BBC1, 9pm
They say that if you remember the Sixties, you probably weren't there. If you remember the Seventies, however, you probably see a trained counsellor once a week. In the last episode of the documentary-cum-reality show, Lisa Rhodes moves in with her two sons, joining the other parents for whom the 70s are all about nostalgia. As the families pull together as a community for the final decade, it's time for them to decide – when was the golden era for the family?

WEDNESDAY

Olympics 2012
BBC1, 3.30pm
Cardiff's Millennium Stadium is the setting for the first action of the Games, as Great Britain take on New Zealand in a Group E women's football clash. The sides are joined in the group by Cameroon and favourites to qualify Brazil, with the top two sides progressing to the quarter-finals, along with the two third-placed nations with the best records in the three groups. England manager Hope Powell was given the job of coaching Great Britain and she largely kept faith with the players she is most familiar with, selecting 16 English players alongside two Scots in her squad of 18, with Kelly Smith among those to be picked.

The Big Sports Quiz – Boys v Girls, Thursday, ITV1, 9pm

THURSDAY

The Big Sports Quiz – Boys v Girls
ITV1, 9pm
Previous episodes of The Big Quiz have seen the cast of Coronation Street battle their Emmerdale counterparts. Now it's time for sports personalities to take part. Two teams – captained by Paddy McGuinness and Charlotte Jackson (pictured) – will feature the likes of England goalkeeper Joe Hart, runner Kriss Akabusi, Olympic gold medallist Amy Hazel, swimmers Mark Foster and Karen Pickering, and heptathlete Louise Hazel. Physical and mental challenges abound – and there may be some dirty tricks along the way … Stephen Mulhern hosts.

FRIDAY

Snowdonia – A Year in the Wild
BBC2, 9pm
It's Friday night. You've got options. Hit the pub? See a movie? Take the family bowling? No, you want to stay home and watch Snowdonia: A Year in the Wild. This is the first of three films exploring life in Britain's National Parks. It tells how Snowdonia in north Wales is a landscape formed by extinct volcanos, and is home to creatures including otters, hen harriers and peregrine falcons. See – bet you didn't know that, did you? And if you did, you're probably not the sort of person with many options of a Friday night anyway. The programme explores the area over the course of a year through the eyes of people who live and work there.

An extra dimension to new house buying

AN invaluable new feature has been developed buy a house builder that allows potential buyers to see how the inside of their new home might look, with all their furniture already inside it.

Lovell has upgraded its floor plans for the Monarch Park development at Elizabeth Road in Cannock to 3D.

This allows buyers to really visualise the inside of a house and how their ideas for decorating and furnishing their new home might look while the usual 2D floor plans can give buyers an idea of what to expect. Lorraine Kendrick, regional sales manager for Lovell in the Midlands, says: "The 3D floor plans are such a useful tool for prospective buyers, who can see at a glance the general dimensions of the house and can immediately visualise the ways in which they might use different rooms and move around the house.

"The plans are also great for people who may already have furniture or want to plan which furniture to buy before they actually move in."

Lovell has revealed the first designs of its homes for sale at the development, with prices starting at £133,000 for the two-bedroom Knightswood, £142,000 for the two-bedroom, semi-detached Dameswood and £170,000 for the Dukeswood three-bedroom semi-detached home. Buyers who are willing to buy off-plan are rewarded for their vision with their stamp duty paid – and their carpets too.

Renowned

These opening offers are worth thousands of pounds and make these beautiful homes even better value.

The new development is in an excellent location not only for the renowned landscape and wildlife but also for local shops, amenities, leisure facilities and transport links.

The houses available at Monarch Park will include a number of different designs, ensuring there will be a house style to suit everyone's needs. There will be 2, 3 and 5 bedroom homes available to buy from Lovell.

Monarch Park is part of a wider £17 million house building programme of the Elizabeth Road estate in Cannock. Lovell is working with Waterloo and Cannock Chase Council to create 150 high-quality new homes for rent and sale.

All visitors are welcome to come along between 10am and 5pm (Thursday to Monday) to Monarch Park to discuss the development with Lovell's sales team and pick up a brochure.

Visit Limepit Lane, Cannock WS11 4RE or call the sales advisor Kim Garbett on 01543 877708.

Restored farmhouse

A FARMHOUSE described as being in superb decorative order having been lovingly restored and extensively refurbished by its present owners is on the market priced at £660,000.

Manor Farm at Cotwalton, Stone, sits in more than five acres of land and enjoys fabulous views over open countryside, and includes a large paddock with a derelict building which could - with the necessary planning permission – offer potential for a stable/workshop.

It is situated only a short distance from Stone town centre.

The lounge has an original fireplace with tiled back crocus design and period painted surround with solid timber grate, while the sitting room has a brick back fireplace with Tiger stove and slate quarry tiled grate with timber mantle over.

The kitchen diner is fitted with a range of wall and base drawer units with granite work surfaces over, inglenook chimney breast fireplace with recess for Stanley range cooker, integrated extractor fan, recess for American style fridge freezer, integrated dishwasher, large breakfast bar style island, dining area, exposed inglenook chimney breast fireplace and walk-in storage pantry.

The conservatory has two French doors to the sun terrace, while the laundry has base units with drawers and roll edge work surfaces, single drainer sink unit with mixer tap.

The cloakroom/WC has a wash hand basin and low level toilet. On the first floor the master bedroom has an en-suite with walk-in double shower, low level WC and pedestal wash hand basin and three further bedrooms and a bathroom with claw foot roll edge bath, vanity wash hand basin, low level WC and walk-in double shower.

On the second floor are the storage/hobby room and two more bedrooms, one of them en-suite with a claw foot roll top bath, pedestal wash hand basin and low level WC. Outside is an attached single garage and a detached triple garage block with a first floor loft room and WC.

The front garden has a lawn and shrubs and large gravel hard standing space for parking and turning circle and to the side is a small orchard with plum and apple trees and enclosed paddock. For further information call Bridgfords on 01785 318 706.

Compact SUV has versatility that is hard to ignore

By Iain Dooley

NOW IN its third generation, Mitsubishi's Outlander has gradually evolved from left-field alternative to a compact SUV to something with the potential to give the current crop of affordable mid-size sports utility vehicles something to worry about.

With its streamlined stance and decidedly upmarket styling, Mitsubishi bosses are bullish about this Outlander's performance in the marketplace. Being realistic, Mitsubishi in the UK is offering a diesel-only fleet complete with four-wheel drive as standard.

The only major decision to make is whether to go with the firm's six-speed manual transmission or the six-speed auto.

In isolation this Outlander is a welcome step forward from the Japanese car maker.

However, internally this model is more significant than the average buyer will ever appreciate. A cornerstone of the firm's new model plans for the coming years, not only has the Outlander been the subject of a significant weight-loss programme – 100kg – it's also been designed from the outset to accommodate both conventional engines and the new wave of plug-in hybrid technologies.

For now, though, the Outlander symbolises a significant step forward in its own right.

The weight reduction has been achieved without any compromise to the ownership experience, while the reward for the engineers' hard work has been meaningful efficiency and emissions gains.

The sole engine option will be familiar to Outlander fans as it's a modified version of what was in the second-generation car.

The 148bhp 2.2-litre diesel unit has been reworked for its new home, with the result a useful 50mpg and a sub-150g/km CO2 rating.

From a performance angle the car will sprint to 60mph in just under 10 seconds, while top speed is 124mph.

Both gearboxes deliver a smooth and hassle-free experience, with the auto offering the extra convenience for urban dwellers and those seeking fewer distractions when towing.

On the road the Outlander performs well, and comes across as a genuinely competent all-rounder. There's a welcome maturity to the way it drives, and body control is well contained and overall refinement is pleasingly high.

Granted, there's no escaping the fact that the Outlander is diesel powered, but the car's cabin ambience is rarely disturbed by the engine's activity when at sensible speeds.

Factor in an easy-to-use all-wheel drive system that offers extra grip when the weather turns foul or for added security when you're towing and the Outlander's versatility is hard to ignore.

This is an attribute also reflected in the car's ability to accommodate a growing family.

Mitsubishi's engineers are keen to stress that the inclusion of a third row of seats turns the car into a genuine seven-seater.

Boasting a stylish, streamlined appearance plus a revised cabin offering a much-needed and welcome high-quality ambience, this third generation Outlander does many things right.

The substantial weight saving, promise of generous kit levels and tangible running cost savings are just some of the other achievements likely to put the Outlander on the shopping lists of many buyers.

The fourth generation Clio sees a 100 kg drop in weight compared to previous Renault models

Renault reveal their most advanced five-door Clio

RENAULT has taken the wraps off its long-awaited fourth generation Clio and released general details about the new model.

It's set to be the most efficient and advanced Clio yet, with new engines joining the range and an average drop of 100kg in weight per model compared to the previous Clio.

The UK will only see five-door models. It's the first all-new Renault to show the company's new 'brand identity', and it will house the new 900cc, 89bhp TCe 90 three-cylinder turbocharged petrol engine.

The other petrol option at launch will be a four-cylinder 118bhp 1.2 turbo, which will be linked to Renault's EDC (Efficient Dual Clutch) transmission.

A 1.5-litre dCi 90 diesel is the lone initial diesel option, and in due course it too will use the EDC gearbox.

The new Clio will benefit from a new level of connectivity with the Renault R-Link; an integrated tablet device linked directly to the car.

The interface is a 7in touchscreen, but it's also voice-activated. It provides access to all the car's key functions.

Where specified, the TomTom Live mapping services offer real-time traffic updates, information on services near the route, and a special function allows users to map their eco-performance for each route and pick up tips on how to raise their efficiency.

New MX-5 puts out lots more zoom-zoom

A NEW, upgraded version of the world's best-selling open-top sportscar, the Mazda MX-5, is now rolling off the assembly line in Hiroshima, Japan and will go on sale in the UK later this year.

The upgraded MX-5 has enhanced safety features and refined driving attributes, together with exterior and interior improvements to make the Roadster Coupe and the classic soft-top models even more attractive.

Exterior changes include a new, more aggressive front bumper design that also improves aerodynamic performance, and the availability of a striking new Dolphin Grey Mica paint finish. Inside, the panel décor and matching steering wheel spokes have been upgraded for an improved cabin ambience.

The MX-5 has always delivered one of the world's most enjoyable drives, and the upgraded version is now even more responsive to driver inputs.

Throttle pedal actuation has been modified on manual transmission models, increasing the feeling of linear acceleration and giving the driver even more control when accelerating from lower speeds, on winding country roads, for example.

Acceleration

The characteristics of the vacuum brake-booster have been revised to optimise brake return control, which is especially beneficial when the driver brakes while entering a curve. The new acceleration control then kicks-in when the driver backs off the brake and steps on the accelerator again.

Taken together, these two new upgrades make braking more controllable and acceleration after braking both smoother and faster. Consequently, the upgraded MX-5 takes Mazda's legendary Jinba Ittai 'horse and rider as one' driving experience to a whole new level – and make the new model even more fun to drive.

Not only is the upgraded MX-5 more aggressive-looking, aerodynamically more efficient and better handling around corners, pedestrian safety is also greatly improved.

This model introduces Mazda's new 'active bonnet' pedestrian protection system which automatically raises the trailing edge of the bonnet if a pedestrian impact is detected. This action provides immediate space under the bonnet to absorb impact energy and soften the blow. Complementing the new bonnet, the new front bumper design also enhances pedestrian leg protection.

The upgraded Mazda MX-5 will go on sale in the UK later this year.

Rugged and reliable – the new Land Rover Defender XTech Special Edition offers excellent towing

Power and panache from new Defender of the faith

THE ICONIC Land Rover Defender now has even more rugged appeal with the launch of the Defender XTech Special Edition.

Offering customers the same assured breadth of capability, the Defender XTech stands out from the crowd in Orkney Grey or striking Nara Bronze, which is unique to this special edition, with contrast Santorini Black roof and wheel arches and black chequer plate along the bumper and sills.

A special 'DEFENDER' decal sits above the rear LED lights whilst the front lights are enhanced with Santorini Black headlamp surrounds in contrast to the body colour. This distinctive front end design is complemented with a body colour grille and gloss black Land Rover lettering on the bonnet. A rear step bumper assembly aids entry, exit and loading. Gloss Black Saw Tooth 16-inch alloy wheels and MTR off-road tyres complete the look giving the Defender XTech a powerfully strong and purposeful stance.

A pure Ebony part leather interior complements both the Orkney Grey and Nara Bronze with contrast Lunar stitching. The Land Rover logo is embossed on front headrests whilst carpet mats have the Defender logo woven in.

To harmonise with the exterior of this special edition, the central switch panel matches the body colour of the vehicle with the same paint finish.

The XTech Special Edition comes with a high level of standard equipment, including Air Conditioning, Anti-Lock Brakes with Electronic Traction Control, central locking with remote control and heated seats and windscreen.

With a choice of the 90 Hard Top and 110 Utility Wagon, a range of standard options and accessories are available to add even more capability and character to this iconic four-wheel drive vehicle.

Powered by the 2.2-litre diesel engine with six-speed manual transmission, the Defender boasts 360Nm of torque for effortless towing and excellent driver refinement whether on or off-road.

The Defender XTech Special Edition is on sale now starting at £27,995.

You want to buy a second-hand car.

Just something that's fuel-efficient. But it needs a bit of power – your neighbourhood's quite hilly and your groceries can be so heavy. And it's nice to have an engine that roars.

CANNOCK CHASE DISTRICT COUNCIL

NOTIFICATION UNDER SECTION 49 (4) OF THE COMMUNICATIONS ACT OF A FINAL DECISION IN RELATION TO THE PROPOSED REMOVAL OF A BT PAYPHONE

British Telecommunications plc has consulted the Council upon the proposed removal of the payphone at the junction of ST MICHAELS DRIVE AND RAWNSLEY ROAD, RAWNSLEY, CANNOCK, WS12 1JF.

Full details are available from the Planning Policy department on request by telephone (01543 464265) or on the Council's website at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/planningpolicy. The Council has been undertaking background research and has been in contact with all affected Ward Councillors in order to inform the decision in response to the consultation. No objections have been submitted in response to the consultation. The final decision is as follows:

- Consent to removal – B.T. consider that the low usage and vandalism make reinstatement of the telephone service economically unviable.

The final decision will be posted in the payphone kiosk, local newspaper, local libraries, Council offices and on the Council's website.

Swimmers show off a cheque from Yorkshire Bank to help them continue their development

Phoenix club on the rise

CANNOCK Phoenix Swimming Club continue to make waves as they set their sights on more success.

Having gained promotion to second tier of the National Arena League, Phoenix are now targeting another rise in standard.

The team has won the first two rounds of the Nuneaton Junior League and is also on course to make the final which will result in promotion to division one.

Phoenix are also enjoying success in the friendly galas where regional clubs compete and have claimed first place in their last five events.

The club is now aiming to maintain their excellent start to the year as swimmers as we prepare for the finals at the end of 2012. Head coach Luke Thomas said: "I am delighted with the progress of the club over the past six months.

"This was only possible thanks to the hard work ethic and dedication swimmers have shown.

Grateful

"As always we have experienced fantastic help and support from all of the club volunteers, which I am extremely grateful for.

"It is a pleasure as a head coach to be part of a club that is experiencing these levels of success and yet still remaining a friendly club."

To join the club, find details at www.cannockswimmingclub.org

Back-up boys take chance to impress

CHASETOWN'S fringe players came to the fore as they saw off Heath Hayes in a pre-season friendly at the Coppice Colliery Ground.

A shadow Scholars side eased to a 4-1 success over the Midland Alliance outfit on Tuesday night.

The club's second string are the reigning Midland Combination Reserve Division champions and pressed their claims to step up.

Scholars opened the scoring when Tom Leek won possession before running the full length run of the field to set up Karl Edwards to net after 11 minutes.

But the Scholars were made to wait until the start of the second-half to add to their tally, Tom Worthington helping himself to a brace.

Jon Patrick then scored the best goal of the night, along range effort that flew past former Chasetown goalkeeper Adam Lane.

Hayes did manage to reduce the deficit through a consolation strike from substitute Bradley Grice.

Chasetown: Kisiel, Bentley, James, Parsons, Patrick, Westwood, Saunders, Smith, Leek, Edwards, Sullivan. Subs used: Wiggins, Tamms, Horton, Wood, Lunn, Archer, Lowe, Hatfield, Worthington.

Scholars are derailed by slick Railwaymen

Chasetown 1 Crewe Alexandra 7

Craig Harris saw his first game in charge of Chasetown end in defeat at the hands of a talented young Crewe Alexandra side.

by Paul Mullins

The League One outfit were on the front foot from the off and were ahead with just two minutes on the clock. Byron Moore and Shaun Miller combined with neat passing inside the penalty area, with the ball eventually sliced into his own goal by Mark Hands.

The Railwaymen doubled their lead on seven minutes with another well-worked goal that saw Shaun Miller fire past Ryan Price.

You would have forgiven Chasetown for being shell-shocked at the start, but Harris has urged his players to have a go in pre-season and the Scholars responded well. Visiting keeper Alan Martin had to be at his best to keep out a shot from striker Gary Hay.

Crewe extended their lead on the half-hour mark when Price conceded a spot-kick and Byron Moore converted confidently.

Martin was again forced into action to keep out a header from Nick Wellecomme, after a delightful chipped pass from Chris Slater, as Chasetown proved they, too, could pass the ball neatly and effectively.

Matt Johnson cleared off the line for The Scholars before the break, but Crewe made it 4-0 in the second half when Max Clayton got the first of his two goals.

If Crewe's first goal was fortunate, so was their fifth as Clayton drove the ball across the penalty area and it struck Miller on the face and completely wrong-footed Price.

Goal number six was the pick of the bunch. After Martin had saved a Chasetown effort, Crewe split Chasetown apart with first-time touches that saw them go the length of the field before Clayton slotted home.

Despite persistent rain during the match, the pitch held up magnificently and both sides were quick to praise groundsman Bob Brookes. The slick surface benefitted Crewe, as trialist and substitute Tim Grice made it 7-0.

Scholars substitute Billy Russell went close to reducing the arrears five minutes from time. But the hosts did find the net in the dying minutes as they found cut-through the Crewe rearguard, with Russell beating Martin.

Chasetown: Price, Johnson, Branch, Slater (Parsons), Bate (Russell), Teesdale (Richardson), Maguire (Westwood), Hands (Lycett), Wellecomme (Sullivan), Hay (Jukes), Wright (Gould)

Crewe: Martin, Bateman, Robertson, Ellis, Ray, Turton, Moore, Dobie, Miller, Spray, Clayton Subs: Guthrie, Sanders, Grice, Bridge

Burntwood set the standard with medal haul

The successful Burntwood Elite Gymnastics show off the spoils of their success at the Walsall Championships

BURNTWOOD Elite Gymnastics Club are celebrating after striking gold in the Walsall Gymnastics Championships.

Six members competed, for the first time, on all four pieces of the women's artistic apparatus (floor, vault, beam & uneven bars).

Having only competed on floor and vault in previous competitions, Burntwood's squad was rather apprehensive but their hard work and dedicated training paid off with Harleigh Pearce and Natalie Flanagan bagging golds and Maddie Hughes and Hannah Spencer picking up bronze medals. Abigail Spencer and Collette Maddocks completed the successful team.

Parents of children interested in gymnastics should contact club coaches Lorraine Perry (07855 799750) or Jenni Williams (07411 989037) to arrange a trial.

Anyone interested in training to become a coach should also contact one of the above.

Five star Pitmen too good for Hayes

Heath Hayes 1 Hednesford 5

HEDNESFORD made it two wins out of two in pre-season with a comfortable 5-1 success over Heath Hayes.

The Pitmen had to wait 31 minutes before breaking the deadlock despite controlling the early stages of the game.

The lively Elliott Durrell played in striker Aaron Rey who squared the ball to Sean O'Connor to fire home.

Seven minutes later it was 2-0 as John Disney burst forward and his cross was powerfully turned home by O'Connor.

It was almost 3-0 just before the break when Rey saw his 25-yard drive strike the crossbar..

Six minutes into the second period Heath Hayes got themselves back into the game when Dave Waple fired past Dan Crane.

Hednesford made it 3-1 in the 81st minute when substitute Neil Harvey headed home.

The Pitmen added a fourth courtesy of a penalty from Durrell and then made it 5-1 when Rudolf Okyere-Brenyah's cross deceived the home defence and Ronny Hoffmann nodded home from close range.

Charlotte plans golf for juniors

A JUNIOR golf tour has been set up with all three fixtures taking place near Wolverhampton.

The move is the brainchild of University of Birmingham student Charlotte Stanton, who has just completed her second year studying for an applied golf management degree. As part of her studies, she is carrying out a placement at The Golf Academy, Essington.

The junior tour will run through the summer at the following dates and venues: July 30, Ledene Golf Centre, Codsall Wood; August 13, Himley Hall; August 27, Perton Park.

There is also a one-day competition – the nine 'n' dine – aimed at women aged 16-25 who are struggling to find time to play, have no playing partner or have given up the sport and want to take it up again. This is on July 24 at Trentham Golf Club, Stoke-on-Trent.

Hednesford United Under-12 Girls triumphant after penalty-clincher

Under-12s seize crown

Hednesford United

HEDNESFORD UNITED Under-12 Girls proved to be spot-on as they struck gold in the Silverdale Tournament.

United emerged triumphant following some hard-fought contests in swamp like conditions, clinching the crown with a dramatic penalty shoot-out success over Bedworth Eagles.

Keeper Tiffany Whelan was the hero, netting the winning kick after no fewer than 20 penalties had been taken.

The pitches at Silverdale JFC were in a terrible condition due to the recent heavy downpours but Hednesford's class shone through with defenders Lauren Davison, Katie Smith and Taylor Gillis solid throughout while midfielders Samantha Fawdon, Abigail Malcolm, Lana Titley and Molly Bruton ran the show as Hednesford breezed through their group with a perfect record.

Strikers Lois Brindley and Kate Clinton proved a real handful for opposing defenders all day.

Hednesford saw off Leafield Athletic in the semi-final to set up a final showdown against a strong Bedworth Eagles outfit, who have won their league three years running.

Hednesford had most of the possession and dominated the game, but the Bedworth keeper pulled off some superb saves to keep the score level.

Extra-time couldn't separate the sides as the game ended goalless.

The penalty shoot-out was a nail-biting climax but Whelan kept her nerve to net and bring home the silverware.

■ Hednesford United Under-10s are looking for players for next season. Girls in school Years 3 and 4 can call Derek Cox on 07769 837540 for information.

Penkridge dig deep to avoid reverse

PENKRIDGE missed out on the chance to open a sizeable lead at the top of Birmingham League Division Three.

With the weather again decimating the programme, Penkridge beat the rain but found themselves on the wrong end of a draw with Tamworth.

Off-spinner Shafiq Ahmed shone with the ball for Penkridge as Tamworth were bowled out for 176.

Ahmed picked up 5-46 with Richard James bagging 4-18.

But Penkridge then struggled with the bat themselves as they were forced to hang on for a losing draw, ending on 88-7. Chad Clarke top-scored with 22.

Penkridge are still top, seven points ahead of Oswestry, and face a home clash with Coleshill on Saturday.

In Division Two, struggling Fordhouses tasted defeat at the hands of Barnards Green.

Former Staffordshire paceman Chris Guest took 4-29 to help restrict Barnards Green to 151-8. But Fordhouses' batting then misfired as they were shot out for 121 in reply – despite a half century from Imran Qadir.

The setback leaves Fordhouses, who tackle former New Zealand Test bowler Ian Butler at Harborne on Saturday, in the relegation zone but just one point behind their weekend hosts.

Batting problems continue

Halesowen 208-8 (24pts)
Cannock 77 (3pts)

ANOTHER woeful batting performance by Cannock resulted in a heavy defeat to close rivals Halesowen in Division Two of the The Birmingham League.

Andy Hawkins (4-64) and Jack Twigger (3-42) were Cannock's stand-out performers with the ball as Halesowen posted 208-8.

In reply, only Hawkins (22), Andrew Lefeaver (17) and Richie Hewitt (15) reached double figures as Cannock were rolled out for 77.

The result leaves Cannock 10 points clear of the relegation zone.

Plain sailing as club hoist premier honour

SOUTH Staffordshire Sailing Club had a Royal appointment at St James' Palace this week after being named Britain's top community sports club by not-for-profit umbrella body the Sport and Recreation Alliance.

Representatives from the Gailey Reservoir-based club travelled to London to collect their Community Sport and Recreation Premier Award, sponsored by RSA , from The Earl of Wessex.

South Staffs Sailing Club

South Staffs SC, which in 2011 was named Britain's top sailing club by the sport's national governing body, the RYA, has been recognised for the work it does in encouraging and promoting amateur dinghy sailing by providing a safe environment for adults and juniors of all abilities.

The club has 400 members and its a Try Sail-ing Open Day attracts nearly 100 newcomers a year.

Unrivalled

Its development of junior members and under-privileged and disabled children in the region is unrivalled and it scored highly across all areas of volunteer management, school links, innovative projects and green thinking.

Club commodore Mark Nichols said the club was delighted to have been given the award.

"South Staffs SC is very inclusive club that is run by our members for our members," he said.

"We continually strive to better ourselves and over the past year we have continued to develop the programme of activities we offer to our members and the local community. We invest in our members by providing a range of courses, some of which are free or subsidised, with the investment being made in the interests of the club's long-term sustainability.

"The more active and involved someone feels, the more likely they are to develop a strong affinity with the club and the other members and stay involved."

Gareth Brookes, RYA Midlands regional development officer, said: "South Staffs SC is a very friendly, accommodating and successful sailing club in terms of membership numbers, active sailors and junior squad sailors."

The club is a recognised RYA training centre, meaning it conforms to the highest standards of quality and safety in the world.

Frickley first for men from Keys Park

HEDNESFORD will be the sole West Midlands side at home in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League when the new season kicks off on Saturday, August 18.

Rob Smith's side welcome Frickley to Keys Park in a repeat of the Pitmen's curtain raiser of 2007-08 in the same division, which they won 3-0.

Chasetown start life under new manager Craig Harris in Division One South with a trip to face the reformed Kings Lynn Town.

Two leagues separated the sides before Kings Lynn's promotion from the United Counties League and the Scholars' relegation last term.

It's derby day on Boxing Day for Hednesford, when they make the trip to Marston Road to take on Stafford Rangers.

Chasetown entertain Northwich at the Scholars Ground on the same day.

On the final day of the season, Saturday, April 27, 2013, Hednesford finish their campaign at home against Nantwich.

Meanwhile, Chasetown will complete their fixtures with a trip to Coalville.

Staffs seek a cure for one-day heartache

STAFFORDSHIRE'S focused is firmly fixed on championship cricket after their dreams of reaching the final of the Minor Counties Knockout Trophy final ended in heart-breaking failure.

Staffs top the Eastern Division table by two points and travel to Manor Par, Norwich to take on Norfolk on Sunday looking to bounce back from a dramatic defeat at the hands of Wiltshire.

Paul Goodwin's side went down by two runs in a run-laden clash at Leek.

Set a target of 281 to win from their 50 overs, Staffs looked to be dead and buried as they lost openers Craig Spearman and James Campbell with just 25 on the board.

by Allan Smith

Dave Wheeldon, Atiq Chishti and Peter Wilshaw all departed to leave Staffs staring at a humiliating defeat having slumped to 72-5.

But skipper Paul Goodwin and 20-year-old Ben McGuire then set about repairing the early damage.

Goodwin played the anchor role while McGuire got his innings off in typical gung-ho fashion by opening his account with the first of nine sixes.

The pair went on to post a Minor Counties one-day record stand of 159 for the sixth wicket, leaving Staffs needing 50 to win with four wickets in hand as the match entered its final 10 overs.

McGuire (100) struck a magnificent maiden one-day century for the county before he was caught on the long on boundary trying for a 10th maximum.

His innings lasted just 62 deliveries and also included four fours to add to his nine sixes.

His departure, with the total on 231, was quickly followed by the dismissal of Paul Byrne. Greg Willott and Goodwin added 35 vital runs before Willott fell for 16.

Goodwin departed for 66, going for what would have been the match-winning hit from the last ball of the penultimate over.

That brought in last man Imran Arif to join Craig Barker with six runs rquired from the final over of the game.

Singles were take from spinner Mukesh Bhatt's first four balls to leave Staffs needing three runs. But it was Bhatt who held his nerve as he clean bowled Barker.

Despite the defeat skipper Goodwin was proud of his side's efforts.

"It means so much to the players and there were a lot of guys hurting in the dressing room," he said.

"It was a sensational innings from Ben. Hopefully it will be the making of him.

"I am immensely proud of every single one of the lads."

NEW-LOOK PITMEN SHAPING UP NICELY

HEDNESFORD TOWN'S boss Rob Smith is backing his side's attacking quality to make life uncomfortable for their Evo-Stik Northern Premier League rivals this season.

Smith saw his side continue their pre-season preparations with a 2-0 home reverse at the hands of Blue Square Premier outfit Mansfield on Tuesday, but was encouraged by his side's performance.

by Chris Brewerton

New signing from Northwich Victoria, Nathan Woolfe, a player who has a superb pedigree and was the subject of strong interest from Halifax and Stockport County, made his debut for the home side and Smith was keen to point out the quality his team showed in attack despite failing to register a goal.

"We've got real quality and a combative midfield with Dave MacPherson, Phil Clarke, Elliott Durrell and Jamey Osborne," said Smith.

"And of course Nathan Woolfe will be a massive signing for us. He was the one I have been chasing all summer long."

Smith's new-look squad acquitted themselves well against an impressive Mansfield side with the boss happy with the work-out.

"We had to work very hard in the game and it was a great work-out for the players, much more difficult than the previous two fixtures.

"You just have to look at the quality Mansfield had all over the park and remember that, with due respect to Frickley Athletic, we are not playing Mansfield in our first game."

The Pitmen defended admirably in the first half with a barrage of attempts on goal from The Stags as the difference in divisions showed. But goalkeeper Dan Crane made a string of superb saves to keep his team in the match.

After a scrappy opening goal by Lee Stevenson on 10 minutes, Crane made top drawer blocks from Matt Rhead and Matthew Green and another point-blank save from Stevenson to keep the away side at bay as the Pitmen battled well.

The second half was a more even affair as Mansfield made a raft of subsitutions but the second goal came on 55 minutes when Jamie Tolley fired home a superb shot from 25 yards which gave Crane no hope.

Michael Lennon looked lively in attack for the Pitmen and linked up well with Sean O'Connor to test Redmond in Mansfield's goal. Jamey Osborne forced the keeper into a fine save with a superb free-kick with five minutes to go.

The Pitmen face Bedworth United on Saturday at Keys Park (3pm) before travelling to Walsall Wood next Tuesday (7.45pm).

Hednesford: Crane, Disney, Campion, Bailey, Hoffmann, Clarke, Durrell, MacPherson, Rey, Harvey, Woolfe, Subs: O'Connor, Lennon, Osborne, Melbourne, Crookes, Hendrie, Dunleavy,

O'Connor is looking to catch the eye

Sean O'Connor, centre, is crowded out by two Mansfield players during Hednesford's midweek friendly defeat. O'Connor, who enjoyed a previous spell with the Pitmen over a decade ago before moving to Dundee United for £30,000 in 2000, is back at the club on trial and hoping to impress boss Rob Smith and earn a deal at Keys Park.

Monmore men aim to rev up support

WOLVERHAMPTON SPEEDWAY are aiming to win over young fans by offering free admission during the summer holidays.

The Parrys International Wolves have a busy schedule of Elite League fixtures during the six-week school break including local derby clashes with Coventry and Birmingham.

And to encourage families to enjoy the action, the club have announced children aged 11 and under will be admitted free throughout the school break – starting with the meeting against Coventry next Monday.

Club owner Chris Van Straaten said: "This is a great opportunity to encourage youngsters to come along and enjoy a night out.

"We have some attractive fixtures throughout the holidays and we hope that by making it affordable for the whole family we will see plenty of young fans on the terraces."

Wyrley hit the heights

TEN intrepid managers and parents from Wyrley Juniors FC have conquered the difficult challenge of Scafell Pike – at 3,209 feet, the highest mountain in England.

The group, travelled the four hours to get to the Lake District before a difficult three-and-half-hour trek.

They raised over £2,000, which will go towards the club's pitches at Long Lane, Essington and towards team development.

Wyrley chairman Keith Hardy said: "We completed the higher challenge of Snowdon last year and this walk was more difficult. We are looking at attempting Ben Nevis next year."
